Flood of Bills Is Introduced

Today Is Last Chance New Legislation Is Acceptable

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — New legislation swamped the Missouri House today, the last chance to introduce bills this session.

With two hours to go the number introduced came to 109, plus seven suggested changes to the Constitution.

County Court Has Started Inspections

Judge Monroe Wires Governor of Action Already Under Way

An inspection of nursing homes is under way in Pettis County, according to information received from the County Court Thursday morning.

In response to Gov. Blair's order for an emergency inspection of all nursing homes, a return telegram was sent immediately to the governor.

It was reported by Presiding Judge Frank Monroe that Pettis County was one of the first to answer Blair's telegram.

Blair's telegram to Judge Monroe reads, "An emergency exists in our state in respect to the safety of those old people now living in nursing homes. I direct you to make an immediate inspection of all nursing homes within your jurisdiction and to do your utmost to correct unsafe conditions. A new safety code for nursing homes approved by me will be sent to you within 48 hours.

"Our duty is to make certain that the tragedies of Puxico, Hillsboro, and Warrenton will not happen again."

Monroe's answer to Blair read, "Am glad to say that an inspection of our nursing homes in Pettis County has been under way for some few days. Will check same against your code as soon as same is received and you will have a further report at that time. You may expect the fullest cooperation by the undersigned and the entire County Court."

Group Starts Nursing Home Investigation

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — A special legislative committee has started its investigation of the Warrenton nursing home fire in an effort to determine whether new laws are needed to prevent future catastrophes.

Rep. William M. Turpin (D) of Pike County, vice chairman, said last night the first step would be to study the reports of all agencies that investigated the Feb. 17 blaze where 72 persons died.

Then on March 27, he committee will have a hearing for anyone who can shed any light on the cause of the disaster. Among those who will be invited to testify will be Maj. Gen. Ralph E. Truman (Ret.) of Springfield.

Truman was chairman of a special committee appointed by Gov. James T. Blair to draw up a set of fire safety regulations. Those rules, along with a new nursing home setup in the state health division, went into effect yesterday when the governor signed a new nursing home law.

Cold Front Enters State; No Moisture Expected With Change

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Missouri weather returned to a more seasonable pattern today after two days of warm weather.

A cold front entered the north-west part of the state this morning and was moving southeastward. At 8:30 a.m. St. Joseph had a reading of 35 degrees, while Columbia had a 62.

Little if any moisture is expected to accompany the change. Some scattered showers are forecast for the east portion this afternoon as the cold front advances into that sector.

It will be much colder tonight and Friday with lows of from the 20s northwest to the upper 30s southeast.

Ships in Collision

LONDON (AP) — The Dutch passenger ship Waterman and the Italian freighter Merit collided in the Atlantic early today but the Waterman radioed they were not damaged seriously and did not require assistance.

BACK TO LIFE—Mount Vsevidof, dormant for 200 years, returned to life on the island of Umnak, indicated by the black arrow on the bottom map, in the Aleutian chain following the earthquake which sent a tidal wave rolling over the Pacific.

US Seeks To Restrain Hasty Action

Diplomats Make Efforts To Calm Egypt and Israel

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States sought today to restrain Egypt and Israel from any hasty actions which might erupt into new fighting.

American diplomats in Washington, Cairo, Tel Aviv and at the United Nations bent their efforts toward calming both embattled countries.

Much hope was pinned on the forthcoming trip to Cairo by United Nations Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold. He leaves Saturday for expected talks with Egypt's President Gamal Abdel Nasser. America's U. N. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge conferred with Hammarskjold yesterday.

Undersecretary of State Christian A. Herter is acting boss of the department while Secretary of State Dulles is in Canberra, Australia, for the Southeast Asia Treaty council meeting just ended. Dulles is due back in Washington Sunday.

Herter met last night with Israel's Ambassador Abba Eban and then had an "exchange of views" with French Ambassador Herve Alphand and British Minister John E. Coulson, who was acting for the absent ambassador, Sir Harold Caccia.

Eban, recalled from a Florida vacation, conveyed to Herter a "message" from his government.

According to authoritative sources, these two basic Israeli arguments were in the message:

1. Nasser must be stopped. He is trying to turn military defeat into political victory by imposing his will on the United Nations and the United States. He was committed not to send administrators back into Gaza, yet appointed a military governor for the 28-by-6-mile territory. If he succeeds in Gaza he will be difficult to deal with in other likely trouble spots, including the Suez Canal.

2. The commanders were summoned to Jakarta, the national capital, for talks with Sukarno and Gen. Abdul Haris Nasution, army chief of staff. All were expected to arrive by tomorrow except Lt. Col. Ahmad Hussein, who headed a December revolt in central Sumatra. The Antara News Agency said he was "too ill to make the trip."

Both north and central Sumatra revolted in December. They were followed last week by east Indonesia—the Celebes, Timor, the Lesser Sundaes, Flores and Bali. South Sumatra joined the movement last Saturday. On Tuesday the local army commander and Jakarta-appointed governor rejected the national government's authority on Borneo, Indonesia's largest island, and set up a revolutionary council.

Sukarno faces the herculean task of trying to satisfy the rebellious islands' demands for autonomy — freedom from rule by the Jakarta government — and at the same time keep the far-flung republic from disintegrating into a loose federation of autonomous states.

The Premier's resignation was known to be imminent. The outgoing government had lasted less than a year, although Sastroamidjojo had a previous term as premier in 1953-55. He was ambassador to Washington in 1950-53.

Sastroamidjojo stepped down at a meeting in the presidential palace also attended by chiefs of the army, navy and air force.

Sukarno's emergency proclamation cited "the critical situation" throughout the country. He formally delegated governing authority to the district military commanders, who had already seized it in their four rebellions.

Bribery Charges Levelled

FBI Arrests Union Leader H. Hoffa; $25,000 Bond Set, Hearing March 28

WASHINGTON (AP) — James R. Hoffa, a power in the giant Teamsters Union, today faced charges that he tried to bribe a lawyer for a Senate committee investigating racketeering in labor and industry.

Hoffa, 44-year-old Teamster vice president, was arrested by the FBI last night and charged with hiring John Cye Cheasty, a New York attorney, to get a job with the committee and then feed him information from its files.

Two other arrests were announced at the same time, one in Florida and one in Detroit.

Both the FBI and Committee Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) said Cheasty had cooperated fully in the monthlong investigation that led up to Hoffa's arrest. Committee Counsel Robert F. Kennedy said Cheasty worked as "a double agent."

The FBI said that when Hoffa was seized, "he had in his possession documents from the committee files which he had just received."

Soon after Hoffa's arrest, he was taken before U.S. Commissioner James Spain on charges of violating the federal bribery statutes.

Spain ordered Hoffa freed in $25,000 bond pending a hearing before the commissioner March 28. Hoffa's lawyer protested the bond was excessive. After the proceeding, Hoffa declined comment.

After announcing Hoffa's arrest, the FBI said it had arrested Hyman I. Fischbach, 47, a Miami lawyer, on bribery charges. The department said Fischbach, who was seized in Coral Gables, Fla., was named with Hoffa in a complaint filed with U.S. Dist. Judge Richmond B. Keach.

Egypt Plans To Take Gaza Strip Control

CAIRO (AP) — Egypt went ahead today with plans to take over civil administration of the Gaza Strip, perhaps this weekend, without U.N. opposition.

The Cairo government was reported to have given assurances it would not move into the area until everything was "cleaned up diplomatically." But the Egyptians themselves said they would return to Gaza on their own terms as soon as they liked.

Egyptian officials have said, however, that only civil administrators and not Egyptian troops would return. However, Egypt named a major general as governor of the Strip.

Israel already has served notice that it "reserves freedom of action in case Egyptians return to the strip."

U. S. diplomats in Washington, Cairo, Tel Aviv, and the U. N. sought to restrain both Egypt and Israel from taking any hasty action which might result in new fighting.

U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold will fly to Cairo Saturday for conferences, and the United States was pinning much hope on his mission. U. N. Undersecretary Ralph Bunche, who has been negotiating in Cairo, told reporters the U. N. Emergency Force now in the Strip will cooperate fully with Egyptian administrators.

Starts First Shipment Of Oil From Syria Since Attack On Egypt

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — The Iraqi Petroleum Co. said the French tanker Aramis began loading oil today at Baniyas for shipment to England. It is the first shipment of Iraqi oil to Britain since the company's installations in Syria were blown up during the British - French - Israeli attack on Egypt last November.

Iraqi oil is flowing to Baniyas and the Lebanese port of Tripoli as a result of pipeline repairs made just last week. Oil reaching Tripoli is awaiting arrival of a tanker for shipment to Europe.

Economic Aid To Israel May Be Resumed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States disclosed today it expects to resume economic aid to Israel which was suspended after fighting broke out in the Middle East last fall.

State Department press officer Lincoln White said he does not know whether aid to Egypt and Jordan, similarly shelved, would be started again.

White was asked at his news conference whether there was any thought of resuming aid to Israel now that Israeli troops have been withdrawn from areas captured during the October - November fighting.

He replied that Israel's Ambassador Abba Eban last night told Undersecretary of State Christian A. Herter that Israel was interested in "resumption of more normal relations" with the United States in the economic field.

White told newsmen, in response to questioning, he expected economic aid to Israel to be resumed after consultations got under way.

Troops Stop Effort To Kill Cuban Leader

Fighting Takes 40 Lives; American Tourist Is Killed

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — Tank-backed troops have wiped out a bold student attempt to capture or kill President Fulgencio Batista in fighting that took an estimated 40 lives.

The government said the entire nation was calm early today.

One of the dead was an American tourist.

A curfew, imposed after the assault on the presidential palace in the heart of Havana, was lifted last night. Many persons, including American tourists, moved about as usual in bars, restaurants and night clubs.

Armored cars and tanks still mobilized about the palace, Batista's office and residence, were the only open signs of the trouble that erupted violently yesterday afternoon.

There was no official announcement of arrests, but it was evident that police were carrying out an intensive search for participants in the attack.

In addition to the 40 persons reported killed, an estimated 60 were wounded.

The dead included tourist Peter Korenda, Clifton, N.J. A stray bullet killed him as he watched the battle from the fifth-floor balcony of the Regis Hotel. His roommate, Ed R. Butts, Garfield, N.J. was wounded slightly.

Police said the rebel led included Jose Antonio Echeverria, president of the University of Havana students' federation, and Menelao Mora, a congressman when Carlos Prio Socarras was Cuban president.

The bullet-riddled body of another revolutionary leader, former Sen. Pelayo Cuervo Navarro, was found early today on the grounds of a suburban country club but it was not immediately clear whether his death had any connection with the attempt on Batista.

D.A. Won't Testify On Gambling Links

Is Confronted With Alleged Talk Records

Senate Committee Hears Elkins' Tapes As Official Fidgets

WASHINGTON (AP) — District Attorney William M. Langley of Portland refused today to answer questions from the Senate Rackets investigating committee as to whether he had had interests in gambling establishments. He was confronted with purported recordings of his own conversations with racketeers.

A committee transcript of one recording quoted Langley as telling Joe McLaughlin, a Seattle gambler, "You can't have prostitution going, Joe, with this screwball in Salem." An appended note said this was Langley's term for Atty. Gen. Robert Y. Thornton of Oregon.

Langley invoked the Fifth Amendment's protection against self incrimination in declining to answer many questions from the committee. He noted he is under indictment in Oregon on conspiracy charges.

One question was whether he had an interest in any gambling establishment when he ran for district attorney.

Others included: Whether he had any interest in any establishment with Jim Elkins, boss of Portland's underworld.

Whether there was gambling at any establishment he owned jointly with Elkins.

The committee launched its hearings for the day with a dramatic recital by Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) of the circumstances he said attended the arrest last night of James R. Hoffa, vice president of the giant Teamsters Union.

Hoffa was accused of scheming to plant an agent on the committee's staff. He was charged with violating laws as to attempted bribery of federal employees.

McClellan said the committee would meet any "challenge," and Sen. Mundt (R-SD) declared: "Goon squad methods applied to the U.S. Senate will not work."

Hoffa, in a statement, said he had done nothing wrong and would fight the charges.

Once Langley had refused to answer questions, McClellan ordered the playing of the recordings. These were purportedly made secretly by Elkins, described by the committee as "king of the underworld" in Portland.

McClellan said so much of the language in the recordings is "obscene and vulgar" they could not be heard in public, but that full transcripts are available to the committee.

Hopes For Better Health

Ike Leaves Aboard Cruiser Tonight for Bermuda Trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower sails tonight aboard the guided missile cruiser Canberra on a leisurely six-day voyage to Bermuda.

He hopes the trip will benefit his health, clearing up a stubborn cough, head cold and ear infection. He told his news conference yesterday he was "some better."

The President arranged an afternoon one-hour flight to the naval air station at Norfolk, Va., for transfer a bit later to the big warship.

The plan is for the Canberra to meander lazily for six days and nights, mainly in warm gulf-stream waters, and arrive at Bermuda next Wednesday afternoon.

A week from today in Bermuda, Eisenhower will start four days of talks with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

He will continue to carry the duties of the presidency.

The President noted at his news conference yesterday there are "complete and secret" communication facilities aboard the Canberra to keep him in close touch with Washington "all the time I am out at sea."

The White House said later that a courier seaplane could put Eisenhower ashore quickly in event of any emergency that called for return to the capital.

This will be Eisenhower's first ocean voyage since he returned part of the way from Korea aboard the Cruiser Helena as president-elect in 1952.

While aboard the 673-foot warship, Eisenhower will occupy the quarters of Rear Adm. Lawrence R. Daspt, commander of Cruiser Division 6. The suite includes a 40-by-20-foot main salone for a combination dining - conference - office facility, and sleeping quarters 22 by 18 feet. A separate galley is available.

The White House physician, Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder, told newsmen he is confident the salt air on the Bermuda cruise will be good for the President.

Plenty for All

How do you like your weather — hot or cold? No matter which, you've had your order fulfilled today.

Partly cloudy and much colder tonight and Friday; low tonight near 30; high Friday in lower 40s.

The temperature at 7 a.m. was 58, 40 at 10 a.m., 45 at 1 p.m. and 46 at 2 p.m.

The temperature one year ago today, high 42, low 28; two years ago, high 75, low 26; and three years ago, high 37, low 15.

Stage at Lake of the Ozarks 48.7 fall 3.

Eisenhower plans to get in some exercise along with some basking, with skeet shooting one likelihood. There will be plenty of opportunity, too, for deep sea fishing, bridge playing and watching motion pictures.

In addition to Snyder, the President will be accompanied by his new naval aide, Capt. E. P. Aurand; press secretary James C. Hagerty; the White House official stenographer, Jack Romanga, and the presidential valet, John Mooney.

Airliner Crashes Into 3 Houses; No Survivors

MANCHESTER, England (AP) — A Viscount airliner crashed on landing near here today, plowed through three houses and burst into flames. All 20 persons aboard the aircraft were believed to have perished.

A spokesman at Lancashire police headquarters said:

"As far as we know there are no survivors. We have had none reported and from what we have heard it seems very unlikely that there could be any."

"The plane apparently overshot the runway while coming into land and hit houses on a council estate (a suburban housing project). There were people inside the houses but we don't know how many."

The big ship, powered by four turboprop engines, was arriving from Amsterdam when it crashed. It belonged to British European Airways.

Recommends Group to Stop Discrimination

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — The Governmental Organization Committee today recommended that the House pass a bill establishing a human rights commission, to prevent discrimination against any racial or religious group.

At a hearing last night 19 spokesmen for labor, welfare, Negro and religious organizations told the committee the state government should have the responsibility of seeing that all groups are treated equally.

One speaker, John K. Bryant of St. Louis, differed. Representing the Missouri Hotel Assn. he urged that the state go slowly. Better racial relationships can be more fairly achieved by education than by "mandate of law," he said.

Yesterday the House advanced a bill barring discrimination against any applicant for state employment because of his race, creed, color, or national origin. It has passed the House before but never has survived in the Senate.

Real Boss of Teamsters

FBI Arrest of Hoffa Backs
A Theory, Debunks Another

WASHINGTON (AP)—There have been two legends about Jimmy Hoffa in the labor field, one that he had guts, the other that he was too smart for the law.

The FBI's arrest of the cocky, hull-shaped Midwest Teamsters Union boss last night, on charges that he bribed a Senate Rackets Investigating Committee staff member, may have proved the one theory and disproved the other.

Hoffa, 44, long has been reputed as the real boss of the Teamsters Union. He has always smilingly denied this and paid lip tribute to Teamsters President Dave Beck. But he has made it clear that with Beck out of the way, he would take over.

A rough-and-tumble character, he has been investigated by five congressional committees in recent years for alleged underworld connections and questioned business deals. He has had a fast climb in Teamsters ranks.

Starting out in Detroit, he expanded his Teamsters domain throughout the Midwest and South and extended it along the East Coast and into New York City.

Last April Hoffa was invited to lecture on labor relations at Harvard University. While he was at Cambridge, the New York district attorney, Frank Hogan, made a statement saying Hoffa was supported by "hoodlums and racketeers."

Hoffa, replying with typical bravado, said, "I've been investigated by grand juries and congressional committees. I will submit to any honest investigation anywhere." And he said he had never been indicted.

A House committee in 1934 dug up a few interesting things about Hoffa. One was that he had an interest in an obscure insurance firm handling the lucrative welfare fund account for the Central States Conference of Teamsters. Hoffa heads the conference.

The committee also produced testimony that Hoffa's wife had a major holding in a truck firm which took over a contract vacated by a firm put out of business in a teamsters labor dispute.

Hoffa also operates a girls' camp in Michigan and has Florida real estate interests.

Hoffa is a man of apparently modest tastes in dress and habit but of consuming interest in wielding power. He wears inexpensive clothes and his white cotton socks are a trademark.

Democrats Set
Sights on Seven
Senate Victories

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee today set its sights on victories in seven states next year in forecasting the Democrats will tighten their control of the Senate.

Chairman Smathers of Florida predicted in a statement that the Democrats will boost by from four to seven seats their present 49-47 margin.

The forecast contrasted with previous predictions by Chairman Schoeppel (Kan.) of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee that the GOP will take over the Senate by a margin of one or two votes in the 1938 elections.

Smathers said the Democrats have their best chances to oust Republican senators from Maryland, New York, California, New Jersey, Arizona, West Virginia and Maine.

Republican strategists have indicated they believe their best hopes of unseating Senate Democrats lie in races in New Mexico, Rhode Island, Missouri and Washington state.

Smathers said Republican candidates are going to have to run next year without much benefit from President Eisenhower's popularity—a note that some GOP members also have sounded.

Smathers noted that of 32 Senate seats to be contested next year, 21 now are held by Republicans and 11 by Democrats. He said five of those Democratic seats are in the South and "the remaining six seats also appear sufficiently secure."

Members of Sorsis were well entertained Monday afternoon with a comedy presented by a group of women, most of them former members of the Community Playhouse. The scene of the comedy, "From Five to Five-Thirty," was arranged by Mrs. O. W. Wiley and was the living room of Mrs. Treotop's home. The room was filled with arrangements of flowers and was a bit cluttered up.

The doorbell rang and rang as Mrs. Boxer, played by Mrs. Stella Kennedy, maid in the home of Mrs. Treotop, played by Mrs. John Zulauf, read a love story in a romance magazine. Finally she sauntered to the door and opened it to find a very severe looking young woman who was Edith, a daughter of Mrs. Treotop, Edith, played by Mrs. C. W. Stephenson, was upset. She had written her two sisters to meet her there to talk over the ridiculous things their mother was doing. The mother had been seen coming out of a tavern by Edith's husband, Arthur, a vicar, and she had bought a lot of new clothes, including an evening dress. Since they had been giving her mother money, Edith told her two sisters when they arrived, it was time they do something. So Edith and her sisters—Alice, played by Mrs. Herman Myers, and Gertrude, played by Miss Philomena Bergmann—decided they should send her to Sunset House, a place for elderly women.

The mother, however, was at the picture show and when she returned she was in no way excited about what the girls thought. When it came to Sunset House she told them plainly she didn't intend to go but was going to live her own life.

When they questioned her about the clothes she said nothing. Then they found the bill—73 pounds. As the storm was at its height, Edith noticed that the bill was paid. She demanded that her mother tell her where she got the money—but she wouldn't. Then Gertrude noticed that a picture in the room was gone. "Mother sold the picture," she shouted to which the mother admitted she did.

"That old dirty picture," shrieked Edith. "How much did you get?"

The mother calmly told them she got 15,000 pounds—the picture was an original.

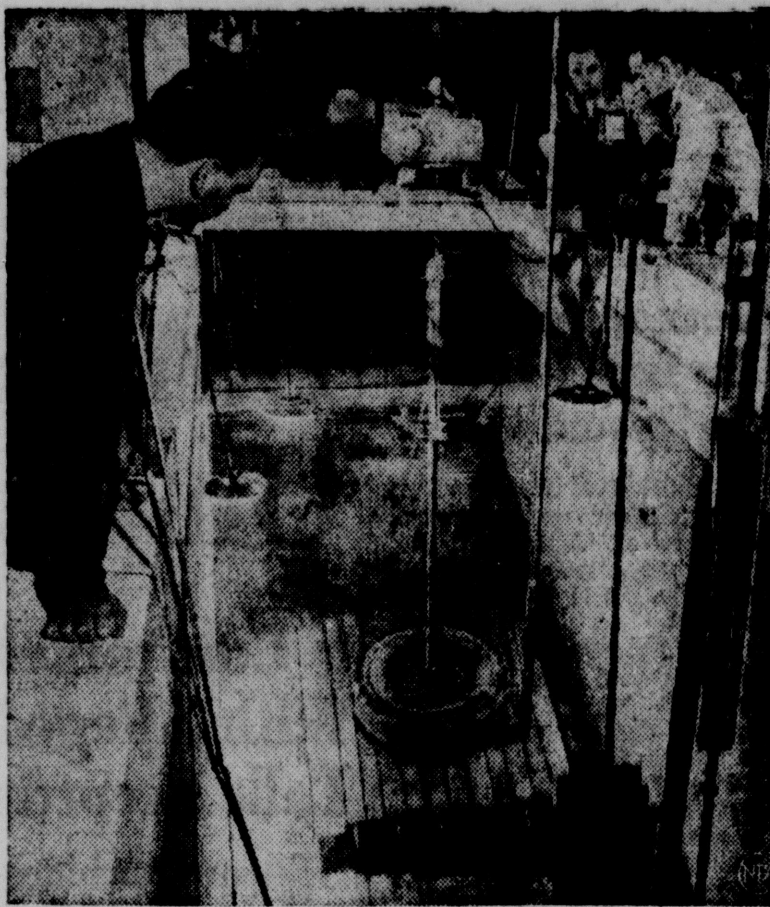

"Fifteen thousand pounds," gasped Edith. "Why, Mother, you're wealthy."

There was a change in expressions. No Sunset House to get rid of her forever. They all became sweet and attentive at once. But the mother hastened to tell them she was moving to another town, she was taking Katie, the maid, with her, and she had made her will, leaving nothing to any of them.

They hastened to remind her that they had given her money to support her and she told them she would pay them back all she owed them.

Then they started on Katie. "That terrible Mrs. Boxer." They all hated Katie and let her know it.

"I like her," exclaimed the mother. "Katie and I understand

ATOMIC VULCANIZER — Photo shows a history-making scene in the tire industry. For the first time, atomic energy has been used to vulcanize an automobile tire. Vulcanization, basic process in the manufacture of all rubber products, is normally accomplished with heat. Nuclear vulcanization of the tire was done without heat. It is the first basic change in "curing" of rubber products since the discovery of vulcanization in 1839. Above, B. F. Goodrich scientists at the National Reactor Testing Station, Arco, Idaho, check the tire. Encased in a steel mold, it is slowly rotated over radioactive fuel elements in 17 feet of water. Water protects the scientists from radiation exposure.

Society Furnishes Teacher

Easter Seal Fund Will Make
Girl's Graduation Possible

Sherry Truit and Charles Schneider

If an "Easter Seal Girl of the Week" were to be proclaimed today, the person most likely to be nominated would be Sherry Truit of Novinger, Mo. She might think it was strange because, as she puts it, "Why me? All I'm doing is studying the Missouri Constitution." But that Constitution is mighty important to her, and here's why —

Due to an automobile accident in 1933, Sherry then 14, received a spine injury which resulted in the loss of the use of both arms and legs. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orien Truit, expended their funds and energy trying to find a cure for her.

Between trips to hospitals, Sherry continued her studies, though it meant a tiring ordeal for her mother, who took her back and forth to classes. Last spring, she finished school just two credits short of graduation. At this time, State Crippled Children's Service took her to a St. Louis hospital for extended treatment and medication. Through the summer she was fairly content, but when the school bells rang again in September, Sherry became anxious about those two credits covering the Missouri Constitution.

There were no state funds for schooling nor could the hospital provide it, so an appeal was made to Missouri Society for Crippled Children and Adults. The Society agreed to employ a tutor, under their Easter Seal home and hospital teaching program, who would help Sherry qualify for graduation.

Charles B. Schneider, a post-polio himself, was employed by the Society, and he is now working with Sherry on the Missouri Constitution. Perhaps you can see why it means so much to her.

The future is not discouraging to this plucky 18-year-old. Another operation is forthcoming soon, and then with a high school diploma in her possession, the State Vocational Rehabilitation Service has agreed to send Sherry to college. She wants to be a speech therapist — wheel chair or no — and with her courage anything seems possible.

This is a story of faith involving many people — parents, doctors, teachers, public and private agencies, and above all, the faith of a young girl who is sure the Constitution means what it says in the Bill of Rights when it promises — "all persons have a natural right to life, liberty, the pursuit of happiness and the enjoyment of the gains of their own industry."

We'll bet on that Easter Seal Girl to prove it!

IT WALKS—Since "perambulate" means to walk about, a Swedish inventor has come up with a perambulator that really does walk. As seen above, during demonstration in Stockholm, Vilhelm Peterson's pram has, instead of wheels, 20 metallic feet, fixed to the axle in spoke fashion. It "walks" up and down stairs and, on flat surface, the "feet" impart a rocking rhythm to the carriage, which should act like a lullaby.

each other. She has been here ever since she got out of prison.

"Prison!" they squealed. "That woman has been in prison and you keep her in your house?"

"Yes," said Mrs. Treotop. "You wouldn't keep her in your house, would you?"

The three of them shuddered, and Mrs. Treotop continued: "Yes, she's been in prison for having the courage to hit that no good bum of a husband over the head with an ax."

That was almost too much for the three daughters who felt they were so up in the world. The three women stood looking at her in amazement. "I don't believe it," said one of them.

"Yes," Mrs. Treotop went on to say, "she went to prison for murdering her husband, and left three little girls." She hesitated a few seconds, then added, "Their names were Edith, Alice and Gertrude."

The three women stood looking at her in amazement and then she called in Katie, who stood with her hands on her hips and said, "Well?"

The play was directed by Mrs. Leonard Peabody, Mrs. W. B. Rich, art and drama chairman, presented the play. Mrs. Harold Dean, president, conducted the meeting.

Guests Take Valuable
Table Decorations
At St. Louis Dinner

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Many $25-a-ticket guests at the Missouri Historical Society's "Spirit of St. Louis Ball" thought the statues of St. Louis on his horse were table decorations to be taken home.

Forty-two guests had the wrong impression. It seems the statues not only weren't intended as souvenirs, they have a retail value of $100 each and were loaned for the dinner.

John P. Clark, advertising executive who said he owns 36 of the 42 missing statues, explained last night the statues have been exclusive items, sold primarily for awards to public figures for distinguished service.

"St. Louis is no longer a one-horse town," Clark said.

Clark said 1,000 letters have been mailed to persons who bought tickets, explaining the matter, and they thought they were entitled to believe all will be returned, the table decorations.

"Nobody blames the guests," he said. "They paid $25 a ticket so

Reorganize Kitchen When You Clean House This Spring

By KAY SHERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer

Your springtime kitchen scrub-down provides a good chance to plot a reorganization of equipment. Even a minor reorganization can produce major results in stepping up the ease and efficiency of operations.

I know "spring cleaning" is considered old-fashioned, but regardless of what it's called, most homemakers tackle kitchen shelves, drawers and cupboards for a thorough cleaning and sorting of utensils and dishes about now.

It's an easy matter to bring small equipment out of the jumble in drawers and put it within reach. And it will save minutes each day.

A peg board installed in the dead space under a cupboard or over a sink is one answer. It puts this area to work as hanging space for scissors, vegetable brushes, can openers, small strainers and the like. If the dishwashing, like mine calls for the use of various types of brushes, a strip of peg board or a narrow sinkside board, with hooks added, makes a fine base for dish mops, bottle brush, pot scrubbers and scrapers.

Dispensers for the wax paper, foil and paper toweling you use every day can bring these items out of inconvenient drawers and up into easy reach. One of the new wall dispensers (which hangs on hooks or screws) holds a roll of cellophane tape so that you can tear off a piece with one hand. Sharp knives should be racked separately near the work counter. This is the time to check the blades and, if needed, sharpen them. If you have trouble finding the right knife when you want it, get yourself a rack that can hang them up in plain view. One of the cleverest new knife racks I've seen has five knives with different colored handles to tell you at a glance which is which.

If you spend time searching for the right pan in a storage drawer, or if you have to move four to reach one, try hanging the most-used pans above your stove. Some pots and pans come with racks. But I've seen equally satisfactory arrangements with hooks screwed into a narrow board, and more elaborate displays arranged against sizable peg-board panels.

Your sorting and rearranging may turn up utensils you rarely use and could better be removed from overcrowded drawers where the most frequently needed spoons, forks and mixing aids are stored. Exhausted utensils should be retired permanently.

Fresh shelf coverings for clean shelves can also do their bit towards modernizing kitchen appearance. Besides the multitude of new patterns in paper, there are adhesive plastic self-edgings to hold papers in place.

Shelves where oily or sticky jars are stored need frequent cleaning. For those, try a strip of plastic fabric which can be washed and won't spot.

Rubber shelf coverings now come by the yard, so you need buy only what you need. I find the grooved rubber mats particularly valuable on shelves where pans are stored, because they deaden clatter, won't tear or scar and last indefinitely. This material is also good surfacing for food-storage shelves.

Council Organized in 1923

First Local Girl Scout Troop Was Founded by Lou E. Longan

Sedalia and hundreds of Girl Scouts in this community are helping to commemorate Girl Scout Week, March 10-16. The national theme this year is "Girl Scouting is a Family Affair."

With the advent of the recent formation of the Old Trails Council for the Girl Scouts in this area, Sedalia has every right to be proud of its Girl Scout program. Sedalia was recently selected as the site for the headquarters of the Old Trails Council which covers Pettis, Benton, Howard, Cooper, Saline and Morgan Counties. The many activities provided for the promotion of Girl Scouts here this week reflects the rapid interest which is being exhibited by people of this community.

This year marks the 45th anniversary of the Girl Scouts of America. It took only eight years before Sedalia joined ranks by forming an organization here. In 1920, Miss Lou Eva Longan organized the first troop. A year later, a second troop was formed. In 1922, a local committee was set up to sponsor the movement in Sedalia. Members of that committee consisted of Mrs. Fred Hoffman, Mrs. J. A. Lamy and Mrs. George Trader. This stimulated the formation of a third troop.

In 1923 a local council of Girl Scouts, Inc., was organized, with Mrs. E. F. Hoffman serving as commissioner. A constitution was adopted on April 10, 1923, and the official name "Osage Girl Scout Council of Sedalia" was chosen.

Coming up through the years, many community-spirited individuals did much to help perpetuate the Girl Scout movement in Sedalia. Thousands of girls have been able to go through the various ranks of Scouting because far-sighted Sedalians saw to it that these young ladies' activities were channeled into the right direction.

Although the city of Sedalia has had professional assistance in the past, September, 1956, provided a milestone in Girl Scouting for this area. The Old Trails Council of Girl Scouts was chartered. This was the first time that a regional council was formed in this area. Miss Sandra Clough, a professional in the field of Girl Scouting, took over duties as executive director of the council on Nov. 5, 1956.

There are presently eight cities in the six-county area coming under the jurisdiction of the Old Trails Council. These include Sedalia, Marshall, Slater, Fayette, New Franklin, Warsaw, Versailles, and Gravois Mills. Boonville has not chosen at this time to affiliate itself with the Council since it feels it is financially independent and has some type of training program of its own.

The annual budget for the council is $14,000 a year. With over 1000 girls and 79 troops coming under the Girl Scout program in the eight communities, officials feel that the comparatively low budget is doing a tremendous job for so many girls.

Marshall and Sedalia have contracted with United Fund as its fund raising organization, while the

Minister Is Convinced Policemen Are On Job

HENDERSON, Ky. (UP)—The Rev. C. Sumpter Logan of the First Presbyterian Church is convinced the city police are on the job.

He was stopped by Patrolman Robert Jones, who thought the minister was driving a little too fast. An ensuing discussion led to the long hours of low pay of policemen. The officer let the minister off with a lecture. Later the minister took a letter to the Henderson Gleaner and Journal, urging better pay for officers. And returning to his car, he found attached a parking violation ticket.

Other six cities have special drives of their own to help meet the budget. Pettis County can feel proud of its contribution towards finances, since 57.8 per cent of the budget of the council comes from this county. Saline County contributes 27 per cent; Howard County 9 per cent; and the other communities are responsible for 4 per cent of the cost.

Much can be said as to the value of employing a full-time executive director. It has been estimated that the number of girls coming into the Scouting program since the area council was formed has increased from 500 to 1000. As an example of the impetus in the organization of troops, it has been pointed out that prior to the council and the executive director there were no Girl Scout troops in the Whittier Elementary School. Now there are five troops. Jefferson School did not have any troops prior to six months ago; now it has organized two troops.

Miss Clough was graduated from the University of Minnesota last June. She came to Sedalia from St. Paul, Minn., however, she formerly was a resident of Jefferson City. She has been a Girl Scout and has been on the camping staff at Pin Oak, the Jefferson City established camp, as well as a staff member of a Girl Scout camp at Penske Lake, Minn. She has given an extensive training pro## gram for the leaders of troops in the Old Trails Council since coming to the council in November.

With the increase in interest in recent months in Girl Scouts, Sedalia has found many activities planned to help promote Girl Scout Week. A talent show for Girl Scouts was sponsored by Al Zurcher over KDRO-TV Wednesday night. A fashion show, with all three divisions of the Girl Scouts, Brownies, Intermediates, and Senior Scouts serving as models, was held Tuesday at Flower's Department Store. Both radio stations, KDRO and KSIS, have had various programs and announcements pointing up Girl Scout Week. The Democrat-Capital has closely followed the various activities.

Each day in the week has been employed to stress themes of the Girl Scouts for Girl Scout Week. Sunday was "Girl Scout Sunday"; Monday, "Homemaking Day"; Tuesday, "Citizenship Day"; Wednesday, "Health and Safety Day"; Friday, "Arts and Crafts Day," and Saturday, "Out of Doors Day."

Over 200 adults are presently serving in some capacity in Girl Scouts in the local council. The board of directors of the Old Trails Council include: Mrs. Gerald Esser, Marshall, president; Mrs. Robert Cone, Marshall, vice-president; Don Richardson, Sedalia, treasurer; Mrs. Ralph McCarty, Sedalia, secretary.

In charge of personnel is Mrs. J. M. Bailey, Sedalia; neighborhood chairmen include Mrs. Wilbert Fisk, Fayette; Mrs. Ralph Hamlin and Mrs. T. J. McNally, Sedalia; and Mrs. W. C. Davies, Marshall. Program chairman is Mrs. A. W. Granneman, Gilliam; public relations chairman, Mrs. Bertram, Sedalia; and Mrs. Porter Robb, member-at-large, Sedalia.

TO HIS CUSTOMERS...THE BEST...

Mr. L. K. Green, founder of what is now the Missouri Public Service System, retired in 1927 and sold his electric business. But electricity sparked his son, Ralph J. Green, who as a youth had been an agile lineman and could climb a pole with the best of them. He had laboriously hooked up electric wires from town to town when his father was pioneering by connecting various communities to a central generating station at Pleasant Hill... then a new concept for the times.

In 1940, Ralph J. Green returned to the electric business in purchasing control of Missouri Public Service from Middle West, a holding company.

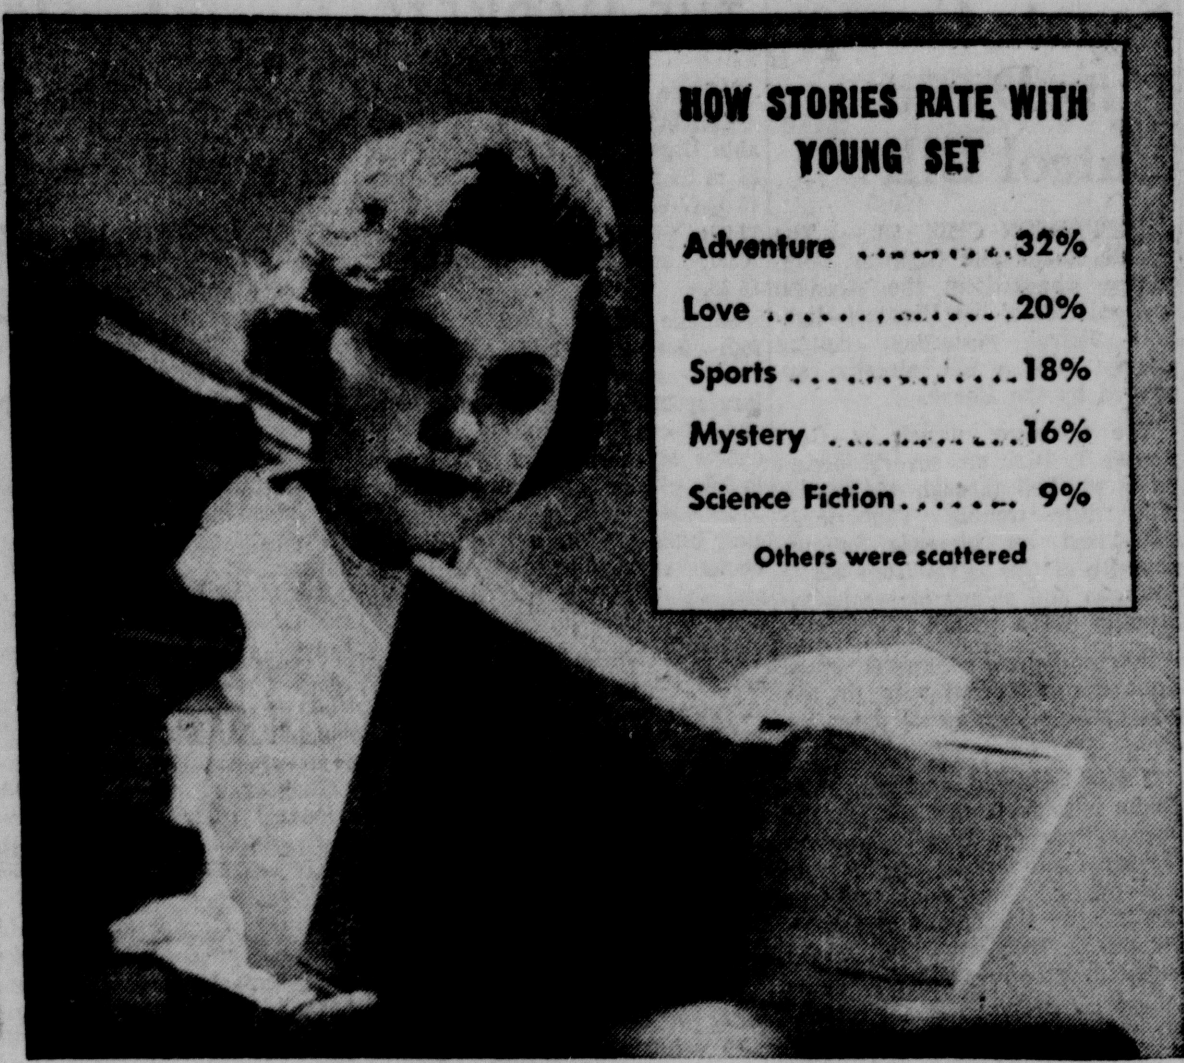

He was dedicated to the charge of providing the best possible electric service to his customers. And with the exception of the years of World War II, when manpower and material were directed to the war effort, this self-assumed responsibility he tenaciously moved forward and still continues, as his customers can testify.

"Providing good electric service is a demanding responsibility," he will say. "There's just no other way to operate a utility and have satisfied customers."

Survey Shows Teen-Agers Read Adventure Books, Newspapers

By EUGENE GILBERT

Do teen-agers forget their reading habits the minute they step out of a classroom?

The answer is no. A nationwide survey of young people reveals that 78 per cent read books not connected with school work, 76 per cent regularly read a daily newspaper and 72 per cent read magazines each week.

Forty-seven per cent say they read more than 10 outside books each year.

The survey turned up one disappointing fact—that only 46 per cent of the teen-agers read the Bible. And of these, only 20 per cent read it regularly while 80 per cent read it seldom or almost never.

"Why should I bother to waste my time reading the Bible?" asked a young man. "I'll have centuries and centuries of eternity to study it. Man, I've got plenty to do now."

But a 16-year-old girl said: "It's thrilling to learn about our earliest history. The Bible can tell us a lot about how people dressed and lived and thought as far back as anyone can go."

Sixty-seven per cent of the Bible readers said the book is not hard to read.

"I can get through it all right," said a 13-year-old Minnesota girl. And a 14-year-old boy said: "I always figured that reading the Bible was for squares. But it's good stuff. Sometimes you find a chapter that just hits the spot."

The movies apparently influence what books young people read, because many they listed as "their favorite recent book" have been made into motion pictures in the last two years.

But the winner, while in the category of a great movie, certainly isn't a recent one. And the most notable thing is how many weighty books and films are listed among the favorites.

"Gone With the Wind" barely edged "War and Peace" as the most popular book. Others in the "top ten" were "Majorie Morningstar," "East of Eden," "Jane Eyre," "The Man in the Grey Flannel Suit," "Moby Dick," "Crime and Punishment," "Not As a Stranger" and "Magnificent Obsession."

"I've gone through 'Gone With the Wind' four times during the past four years," a 17-year-old girl said. "What a romance!"

The teen-agers liked adventure stories best, with 32 per cent giving this category a huge first place margin. Next came love stories, 20 per cent; sports stories, 18; mysteries, 16, and science fiction, 9. The remaining 5 per cent liked other categories or a combination of the above.

A typical comment of those who don't read books was this from a Newark, N.J., boy: "Who has time for long books? I stick to short stories when I have time for extra reading. A book takes a month to finish a short story goes in an hour."

In reply, a girl who is a constant reader said: "Short stories are the tightest form of fiction—naturally, because they are short. But nothing compares to the fun and satisfaction to be gained from reading a novel and sort of getting to know the characters."

The young people also showed they are interested in what is going on in the world by listing front page news as that which they like most to read in newspapers.

A New York boy, one of the 36 per cent who listed front page news as his choice, said: "I like news as his choice, said: 'I like to keep up to date on happenings in the world. You'd be surprised at the interest teenagers are taking in the news these days. What is going on now may determine if we have to fight a war when we finish high school."

The boys and girls named comics and cartoons second to front page news, with 28 per cent of the vote, followed by sport news, 17 per cent, society news, 8 per cent, and movie, radio, television and news columns, 6 per cent.

Asked what they liked least about newspapers, 27 per cent of the teeners named too many advertisements. The runner-up was editorials, with 14 per cent.

"The advertisements just don't mean anything to me now," a 15-year-old Milwaukee girl said. "Maybe when I get a little older they will."

This would seem to pose an important challenge to advertisers to make their layouts more appealing to the young people who will be the buyers a few years hence—and who even now have great influence on what products sell.

The teens selected interesting stories about important people as their No. 1 choice for liking magazines. Thirty per cent voted this way. Next came better articles, features and short stories than media, 27 per cent; good pictures, 16; fiction and non-fiction stories, 15, and stories on fashion and etiquette, 13.

Too many advertisements again ran off with the honors when the young people were asked what they liked least about magazines. Forty per cent picked this category.

Trashy stories was a distant second with nine per cent of the vote.

Wood Speaks To Optimists On Employed

At the regular noon meeting of the Optimist Club at the Bothwell Hotel Tuesday, Ed Wood, training supervisor for the Division of Employment Security of Missouri, told of the program and objectives of his department.

Wood stated that his department operates employment offices and administers unemployment insurance through its 31 offices in Missouri with state headquarters in Jefferson City. Approximately 31,000 Missouri businesses are affected by the program.

The meeting was conducted by Dr. C. J. Blaich, president. Singing was led by Charles Hanna, and the invocation was given by Dr. K. L. Holden.

Dr. Russell Drenon announced that the Optimist Basketball Tournament will be held this Saturday and Sunday at Horace Mann Gym and that trophies will be awarded to the first three teams.

The guest speaker told the Optimists that the largest state employment office is in St. Louis and employs around 300 people and the smallest office employs three people. These offices interlock with 1,800 offices throughout the nation.

In the offices workers are skilled and trained to give aptitude tests to determine the applicants' qualifications and fill the job positions available more effectively. The results of these tests are validated by comparing with successful people with the same qualifications.

Each office has its counselors who help with problems. In southeast Missouri a way-station is maintained for migratory workers, as a service of the office.

It is also the duty of the office to gather information concerning each applicant for unemployment insurance.

Wood spiced his commentary with forceful illustrations and humorous anecdotes to give the Optimist members a better insight into the workings of the system.

Old-Timer Has Frank Answer About Health

ST. LOUIS (U) — John Smith, somewhere between 107 and 111 years of age, replied with characteristic frankness yesterday when someone asked him how he was.

"Lousy," he said and continued to smoke his ancient corn cob pipe. Smith himself is vague about his age and records at St. Louis Chronic Hospital, where he is a patient, indicate he may be between 107 and 111.

He has been blind for 20 years but nurses say that except for this he is in remarkable health for his age, whatever it is. His wife died many years ago and Smith reared their seven children.

Smith spent most of his life farming and mining "tuff" or barium sulfate, used in the manufacture of paint and glass.

He recalls vividly his capture by Rebel soldiers in the Civil War.

"My shoes were old and they walked me until I busted them. I don't know how far we went but finally a lieutenant gave me a gun and told me to go on back home. There was snow on the ground and my shoes were busted and I froze my feet."

Airship Scheduled To Land After Record Breaking Flight

WASHINGTON (U) — The Navy announced plans today for its record-breaking airship to land at 6:30 p. m. tomorrow at Key West, Fla.

That is a switch from a schedule given out last night which called for the ZPG-2 to stay up until 9 a. m. Saturday.

The airship already is far beyond any previous nonstop flight by a lighter-than-air craft.

Late yesterday the airship, which left South Weymouth, Mass., March 4, passed the 7,000-mile mark. That bettered the 6,900-mile record set by the German dirigible Graf Zeppelin in 1929.

When it passed the 7,000-mile mark the airship was north of Puerto Rico. Its cruise had taken it over Portugal, the North African coast and back across the Atlantic.

The previous time record for nonrefueled flight, established by another Navy airship in 1954, was 299 hours, 12 minutes. The ZPG-2 went past that record at 2:45 a. m. yesterday.

Doolittle Says Saucer, Bomber Reports Untrue

WASHINGTON (U) — James H. Doolittle says it "just ain't so" that Nazi Germany developed a flying saucer and a bomber that could attack the United States and return without refueling.

The veteran aviator, chairman of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, gave a House Appropriations subcommittee his estimate of reports published in Germany of great aviation accomplishments under Hitler. These were contained in a book by Rudolf Lusar, former German War Ministry special weapons chief.

Doolittle's testimony was published today, along with that of Hugh L. Dryden, director of the advisory committee.

Dryden said "there is no truth" in a statement that German engineers designed a flying saucer which attained a height of 40,000 feet and speed of 1,250 miles an hour.

Dryden said also the man supposed to have designed the bomber that could cross the Atlantic twice without refueling had written a book of his own with no mention of any such invention.

Doolittle, asked about both the saucer and the bomber, said, "It just ain't so."

Policeman Get Bit By Touchy Motorist After Violation

PHILADELPHIA (U) — A cop thumbed down a touchy motorist yesterday and was bitten — on the thumb — for his pains.

Policeman Edward Hegarty, 37, said he was in a patrol car when he saw the driver streak past a red light. Hegarty gave chase; the driver pulled to the curb, but only for a moment. A block later Hegarty again caught up with his man, asked to see his license, but got abuse instead, and even worse, the bite on the gesticulating thumb.

Two other policemen helped Hegarty arrest the driver, whose name was given as Stanley Ford, 37, a railroad man. Ford was charged with assault and battery, resisting arrest and driving past a red light.

Hegarty went to a hospital for treatment of his thumb.

Shadow of Drought Shifts Farther North

WASHINGTON (U) — The shadow of the prolonged drought has shifted from the southern to the central and upper Great Plains.

A weather bureau report shows that the region that received the smallest percentage of its normal rainfall for the December-February period included Kansas, Nebraska, most of Iowa, and parts of Minnesota and Wisconsin.

This region was reported to have received less than one half normal precipitation. The long-suffering southern great plains was said to have received supplies varying from one half to twice normal precipitation for the period.

Senate Group Cuts Down Patrol Bill

JEFFERSON CITY (U) — The Senate Roads and Highway Committee whacked at the strength and salaries of the Missouri Highway Patrol yesterday, cutting deeply into a bill already approved by the House.

The measure, urged by Gov. James T. Blair on several occasions, whisked through the House with little trouble. The House authorized an increase in the strength of the patrol from 355 to 600 men and salary increases averaging $50 a month.

But the Senate committee would limit the additional men to 100, and cut the salaries all down the line.

It also approved a statement of policy setting out that the patrol's primary purpose is to patrol the highways and handle traffic matters—not to "run down chicken thieves" as one committee member put it. Troopers still could be called in on major crimes.

Last night Sen. Michael Kinney (D) of St. Louis told the Senate Education Committee the state should set up a loan plan to hard pressed school districts could borrow up to $250,000 for new buildings. The 10 - year loans would draw two per cent interest.

Kinney said Missouri is prosperous and it would be better for the state to handle its own school problems than to risk "the dangerous intervention of the federal government."

The committee deferred action after several members questioned the constitutionality of the plan.

W. G. Fish, chief of the planning and reports branch, Glenn A. Garriker, projects reports section, and Eddie Meisberger, public relations, told the meeting of the study and survey which is being conducted in the basin area.

It was explained the survey and study is about one-third complete. It is doubtful if the report in its entirety will be completed by the end of this year.

Some discussions were held regarding proposed reservoirs on the Lamine and Flat Creek, but no specific locations were named. It was explained also that no specific locations have been designated or even considered in the first part of the survey.

About 70 persons were in attendance at the meeting.

Saltonstall Fears Drastic Budget Cuts

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Saltonstall (R-Mass.) said today there is "danger Congress will take the easy way" of economizing by cutting too deeply President Eisenhower's foreign aid requests.

Saltonstall, who heads the Conference of All Republican Senators, said he expects Congress to make some reduction in the proposed $4,400,000,000 program of military and economic assistance. But he said he believes it would be "dangerous" to reduce this program much beyond the average of 10 per cent. He said Congress has cut presidential requests in this field in the last nine years.

The cut last year was more than a billion dollars in a $4,900,000,000 request. Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) has predicted a similar cut this year.

Saltonstall said cutting foreign aid is "the easy way" because "that is the field where fewer constituents will be hurt by reductions and consequently it is the most attractive for those who want to economize," but he added:

"I am one who believes that we get a high return in maintaining our own security not only through the foreign military assistance but through the economic aid we give other nations."

Chairman Green (D-R) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee yesterday announced that a series of hearings beginning next Wednesday on foreign aid policies that he hopes members will defer judgement on the program until they have heard all the evidence.

Eisenhower told his news conference yesterday the only way he can see to attain any substantial savings lies in elimination or slowing up some of the programs he said Congress had authorized. He said Congress "will have to say which one they don't want to carry out, if they are going to make big savings."

Big Rhubarbs Are Expected On New Rules

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—It's a warm July night at Comiskey Park on Chicago's South Side. Minnie Minoso is up with the bases full, two out and the score tied in the last of the ninth. Don Larsen of the hated Yankees zips a fast ball through the strike zone and the plate-crowding Minoso is nicked on the arm.

Imagine the fans' stormy reaction when the plate umpire gives the "strike three" sign and motions for a new supply of baseballs for the extra innings.

That is the way it is going to be this summer, a season that may produce the highest rhubarb crop since Ty Cobb left the game.

Cal Hubbard, supervisor of umpires in the American League, has been visiting dugouts before the exhibition games, briefing the managers, coaches and players about the rule changes that are in effect this year.

"Most of the fans don't even know the new rules were adopted," Hubbard said. "Some of the players don't know too much about them either. I've told the umpires to be extra tough down here in the spring games to warn everybody what to expect."

"The new rule says if a ball is in the strike zone when it touches the batter, it shall be called a strike, whether or not the batter tried to avoid the ball."

"It doesn't say so in the rules but we have agreed to interpret it that the ball shall be dead after it hits a man in a case like that. Otherwise you'd have all kinds of arguments about interference and obstruction."

Hubbard said the rule he expects to give batters the most trouble is the one that reads, "A batter shall not leave his position in the batter's box after the pitcher comes to a set position or starts his windup. If the pitcher pitches, the umpire shall call 'ball' or 'strike' as the case may be."

"This means just what it says," Hubbard warned. "No more of this fiddling around to wipe an imaginary bug out of the eye or hitch up the belt while the pitcher waits."

Another rule change that may result in some confusion is the edict that a pitcher, with nobody on base, must deliver the ball to the batter within 20 seconds after he receives the ball. Last year the pitcher had to throw 20 seconds after he toed the rubber. Catchers must return the ball promptly to the pitcher. If a pitcher takes more than 20 seconds, the umpire shall call "ball."

"Some catchers, Yogi Berra, for instance, walk out half way to the pitcher to return the ball. No more of that. The catcher must return it promptly or he'll be out of the game after a warning or two."

"It will be up to the chief umpire to figure when 20 seconds are up. Hank Greenberg wanted to put up a big 20-second clock in all the parks but we won't need that."

The new rules may save time or the pitches but wait until the rhubarbs start. It looks like a long, rough year for the men in blue.

Lopez Will Try New Tactics This Season

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Infielder Hec Lopez plans to stop trying to pull the ball and hopes instead to begin hitting to the outfield.

The 168-pound 6-footer struck 18 home runs for the Kansas City Athletics last year but his average fell from a respectable .290 in 1955 to .273.

Lopez, a righthander, blames the drop in his average on trying to pull outside pitches.

"I'll give up a few home runs if I can get my average over .300," Lopez said. "And besides, if I started hitting to the outfield the pitchers may change the way they pitch to me and I'll get better balls to pull."

End Charles Anderson and tackle Gordon Brown are former Louisiana Tech athletes now with the Chicago Cardinals in the National Football League.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Aging Al Dark has served notice he'll be hard to keep out of the starting St. Louis lineup at shortstop this season.

The former New York Giant star is expected to be rested periodically throughout the season by Manager Fred Hutchinson to obtain top performance.

Giants Return To the Fray Friday Night

The Associated Press

The big boys of college basketball stepped aside again today as the lesser lights went about the task of reducing the field to two in the NCAA Small College Tournament at Evansville, Ind., and to four in the NAIA competition at Kansas City.

Tomorrow the giants of the court will be back in action in double-headers at Philadelphia, Lexington, Ky., Dallas and Corvallis, Ore., in the NCAA Major College Championship. Winners meet Saturday to determine the four teams which enter the semifinals and finals March 22-23 at Kansas City.

Here's how the small colleges will square off in the NCAA affair tonight:

Mt. St. Mary's, Emmitsburg, Md., vs. Kentucky Wesleyan, Wheaton vs. Los Angeles State. The championship game will be played tomorrow night.

At Kansas City, where play started Monday with 32 teams, the field in the NAIA Tournament will be reduced to four with these games:

Pacific Lutheran vs. Texas Southern, Hamline vs. Eastern Illinois, Western Illinois vs. Tennessee State.

Southeastern Oklahoma vs. Youngstown. The semifinals will be played tomorrow night and the finals Saturday night.

Wheaton rolled up the highest score of the four small college NCAA games yesterday. The Crusaders eliminated South Dakota 90-30.

But Mt. St. Mary's of Emmitsburg, Md., also looked impressive in downing Rider of New Jersey 96-66 with Jack Sullivan, the nation's third highest small college scorer tallying 39 points.

Los Angeles State came from behind in the final two minutes to nip San Diego State 57-55. Kentucky Wesleyan downed the University of Buffalo 72-68.

Six of the seeded teams remained in the NAIA competition. The only break in the seeded ranks yesterday came when Portland (No. 5) dropped an 87-70 decision to Tennessee State.

Top-seeded Pacific Lutheran looked impressive in disposing of Stetson 105-83 but Eastern Illinois rolled up an even higher score in sidelining Villa Madonna 110-78.

Youngstown, No. 2, beat Emporia State 80-74. Western Illinois, No. 4, ousted William Jewell 80-67. Hamline, three times champion of the tourney and seeded sixth, turned back Stevens Point of Wisconsin 81-69. Southeastern Oklahoma, No. 7, subdued Southwest Texas 98-78 with Jim Spivey getting 46 points; and Texas Southern, No. 8, whipped Ball State 97-72.

Berg and Suggs Are Favorites in Women's Golf Championship

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Veterans Patty Berg of St. Andrews, Ill., and Louise Suggs of Sea Island, Ga., were co-favorites today when a record field of the nation's top women golfers opened play in the 72-hole Titleholders golf championship.

The four-day event is being staged at the hilly, 6,290-yard Augusta Country Club course, where par of 72 has been a stern challenge in all of the 17 previous tournaments. It is the oldest medal play of the Ladies Professional Golfers Assn., tour.

Tournament officials predicted that because of a heavy rain yesterday the winning score would be nowhere near the record 291 set by Miss Berg in 1955.

The chunky veteran, who has been playing golf since 1933, won the tournament for the sixth time with her 1955 feat. She finished as runnerup last year, one stroke off the 302 total of Miss Suggs.

Nearly every member of the LPGA tour is competing for a slice of the $7,500 purse. The winner will get $1,000.

Annual Indoor Track Meet Starts Friday

FAYETTE, Mo. (AP)—Eighteen high schools will compete in the annual Central College indoor track meet, which starts a two-day run here tomorrow.

William Chrisman of Independence will defend its championship in the Class A competition, and Brookfield is defending champion in Class B.

Injury Doesn't Stop Him

Granny Hamner Appears Ready to Seek Mound Job

The Associated Press

Granny Hamner, a gritty guy who won't give up in spite of a shoulder injury that ended his shortstop days, seemed ready today to make a strong bid for a pitching berth with the Philadelphia Phillies.

Hamner, 29, made his initial spring appearance yesterday against the New York Yankees in an exhibition game at Clearwater, Fla., and was credited with the 6-5 victory in 12 innings.

He pitched the last three innings and allowed only one hit while striking out five Yankees and issuing one walk.

Rip Repulski hit a home run with two out in the last half of the 12th off Bobby Shantz to win for the Phils.

Hamner, who hit .429 against Yankee pitching in the 1950 World Series, mixed a knuckler with a fast curve.

The 5-11, 160-pound right-hander, injured his left shoulder during a night game last May when he dove for a ball. Last November he underwent an operation for a ripped tendon, but it wasn't successful.

Manager Mayo Smith said it was still too early to tell about Granny as a pitcher, but he's going to give him every chance.

The Pittsburgh Pirates won their fifth grapefruit game without defeat yesterday, a 3-1 decision over the Boston Red Sox in 10 innings. Harold Pritchard's single, a double by Bob Skinner, and Bill Virdon's single broke up the game.

Cleveland made it 4-1 for the cactus loop as rookie Roger Maris socked a two-run homer in the first inning and the Indians downed the Baltimore Orioles 9-5.

After losing four in a row, the Chicago Cubs clipped the New York Giants 9-3. Willie Mays got his first homer, a three-run job that accounted for all Giant tallies.

Brooklyn peppered three Chicago White Sox pitchers for 14 hits, including homers by Pee Wee Reese, Dick Gray and Gil Hodges, for a 9-4 victory.

Home runs by Gus Zernial and Hal Smith helped the Kansas City Athletics squeeze out a 5-4 victory over St. Louis.

Cincinnati rapped three Milwaukee hurlers for 14 hits, and won 11-4. The Redlegs clinched the game with a five-run outburst in the eighth inning.

The Washington Senators edged Detroit 3-2.

The Calumet Farm, owned by Mrs. Gene Markey, set a money winning record by taking down $1,402,436 in purses in 1947.

Bonus pitcher Myron (Moe) Drabowsky, a Trinity College star signed by the Chicago Cubs, was born 21 years ago in Ozanna, Poland.

Hialeah's 40-day racing meeting for 1957 will run from Jan. 17 through March 4.

Olympic Diving Champ To Turn Professional

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Olympic star Patricia McCormick, perhaps the greatest woman springboard and platform diving champion, says she is turning professional.

The two-time Olympic Games winner said at a press conference yesterday:

"The offers have been so good it would be ridiculous to turn them down."

She said her professional debut will be April 4 at the Los Angeles Sportsmen's Show. An eight-week tour with a bathing suit manufacturer and "other offers" will follow, she said.

Miss McCormick, 26, has a year-old son. She is married to her coach, Glenn McCormick.

Webb Wants Shot at Title Bout Winner

CHICAGO (AP)—Middleweight Spider Webb, riding the crest of 19 straight victories, wants and thinks he deserves a shot at the winner of the Sugar Ray Robinson - Gene Fullmer championship fight.

"I think it's about time," said Webb after scoring a unanimous 10-round decision over Wilf Graves, a hard-hitting 21-year-old Canadian who fights out of Pittsburgh, in a nationally televised bout at Chicago Stadium last night.

"I've fought all the tough ones in the top ten," said Webb. "So I feel I should get a crack at the title and get it over with."

Robinson and champion Fullmer meet in their 15 round title bout at the Stadium May 1.

Webb, a 24-year-old Chicago pro who has lost only one of 22 pro fights, had a lot of praise for Graves. The Pittsburgh youngster who outweighed Webb 161½ to 159½, substituted for Randy Sandy at the last minute when Sandy injured his hand. It was his sixth loss in 19 bouts.

There was no doubt about Webb's victory over Graves. Referee Frank Sikora scored it 49-42, Judge E. A. Frankel had it 46-41 and Judge Jim McManus 50-41.

Spivey Earns Small College Court Fame

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A lanky lad from Southeastern Oklahoma State rapidly is earning a reputation as small college basketball's finest performer by dominating individual play in the NAIA's annual tournament.

Jim Spivey, who earned the nickname "aches and sprains" in the hardest possible way, scored on an amazing 51.9 per cent of his shots from the field and 81.8 from the free throw line last night.

His 46-point performance ran his total in two tournament games to 85, and paced Southeastern Oklahoma to a 98-78 triumph over Southwest Texas State College.

The 6-4½ senior from Bray, Okla. (the score cards says he's 6-7; the other figure is his) will the quarterfinals of the tournament, sponsored by the National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics.

Southeastern takes on Youngstown (Ohio) University in the night's wrap-up contest. Youngstown, second seeded on the basis from last night's second round with a handy 80-74 victory over Emporia (Kan.) State.

In other second round games yesterday, pre-tourney favorite Pacific Lutheran knocked out Stetson University 105-83; Eastern Illinois whipped Villa Madonna 110-78; Tennessee State conquered Portland University 87-70; Texas Southern eliminated Ball State 97-72; Hamline defeated Stevens Point 81-69; and Western Illinois overcame William Jewell 80-67.

Pacific Lutheran meets Texas Southern at 6 p.m. (CST) tonight to start the quarterfinal round. Eastern Illinois plays Hamline; Tennessee State challenges Western Illinois; and Southeastern-Youngstown in the other games.

Spivey's brilliant work, added to the 39 points he scored the previous night, contributed to and overshadowed, his team's 48 free throws, which set a team record for the 19-year-old tournament. The total bettered the previous mark of 43 free throws, established earlier in the day by Pacific Lutheran. The old record was 36, set in 1956 by Wheaton College of Illinois.

Spivey, who played in all of Southeastern's games this season despite a broken wrist, a sprained wrist and a broken jawbone, sank 14 of 27 floor shots, and 18 of 22 free throws. He also dominated play off the boards, capturing a game high of 11 rebounds.

Metz Favored In Gulf Coast Golf Tourney

GULFPORT, Miss. (AP)—Easygoing Dick Metz, flashing the form that made him the terror of the professional circuit a few years back, was the favorite as the 11th annual $5,000 Gulf Coast Invitational Golf Tournament opened today.

Metz retired from active competition in 1949 after a decade of following the allure of golfing's jackpots. He now lives at Pike Road, Ala., just outside Montgomery, where he operates a cattle ranch. But he found time earlier this year to win the Alabama Open and the state PGA title.

A 69 practice round Metz posted was just one of the many pre-tournament teatime for the tournament. But many of the boys teeing off today conceded he was the man to beat.

Jimmy Johnson, Detroit, and Paul Farrington, Blytheville, Ark., gave the Great Southern Country Club's 6,006-yard, par-71 course the worst treatment. Both posted 67s with Farrington touring the first nine in an incredible 28.

This unique event is designed primarily for home professionals. Top prize is $800.

Margaret (Wiffi) Smith was only 18 when she won the women's divisional titles of the All-American and World golf tournaments in Chicago in 1955.

Doug Ford won the 1955 All-American golf championship on his sixth attempt.

Labour Wins Limelight In Class L

ST. LOUIS (AP)—North Kansas City, William Chrisman of Independence and St. Louis U. High, toast the best won-lost records but the giant killers of St. Louis Labour will draw much of the attention in today's quarter-finals of the State Class L Basketball Tournament.

Labour, a former girl's school coached by Bob Goodwin, who never played basketball, took its fourth straight upset yesterday, 33-31 in overtime over Kansas City Paseo. The Lions (15-11) face St. Charles (21-8) at 7:30 p. m.

St. Louis U. High (20-5) meets St. Louis Christian Brothers (18-6) at 2 p. m., North Kansas City (25-5) faces Kirkwood (16-9) at 3:30 p. m., and William Chrisman (24-4) takes on Springfield Parkview (20-7) at 9 p. m. in the other quarter-final contests.

William Chrisman ended a five-game victory streak by St. Louis area schools over outside teams by beating University City 70-62 despite 33 points by Sandy Pomarantz, 6-5 U-City center.

St. Charles rallied in the last quarter to upset West Plains 61-57, with Kenny Clark scoring 33. The Zizzers of West Plains had a 31-1 record, best in the 16-team field, but couldn't stop Clark.

The Springfield team outclassed Mexico 58-39 with a balanced attack led by Jerry Rigdon's 15 points and Kirkwood stormed from behind a two-point halftime deficit to beat Paseo 72-50 in the other first round games, divided into day and night sessions.

A total of 5,773 fans paid to watch the double session, bringing the three session total to 8,646, or 1,774 ahead of last year at the same time. St. Louis U. High, CBC and North Kansas City had reached the quarterfinals with victories Tuesday night.

Optimist Cage Tourney Set This Weekend

The annual Optimist Basketball Tournament will be held Saturday and Sunday at Horace Mann Gym, it was announced by Dr. Russel Drenon, chairman of the Optimist Basketball Committee.

Four games will be played Saturday afternoon, with the semifinals slated for Saturday night at 7 and 8 p. m. The finals will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock preceded by the consolation games at 2:00.

Referees will be under the direction of Howard Glavin, basketball coach at Smith-Cotton High School.

By virtue of topping league standings during regular season's play, the First Baptist team must be established as favorites in the tourney. They are led by Charles Casey, flashy center who led the league in scoring. He is ably assisted by Tommy Morgan and other members of the starting five, including Douglas Gilpin, David Snow, and Ira McKinn. They are coached by Dr. Drenon.

Other strong contenders for the championship are the Optimist A and the Sedalia Democrat teams. The Optimists finished second in loop play, followed by the Democrat in third place. All regular league games between the top three teams were decided by three points or less.

The Optimists are coached by Wally McCowan, while the Democrat team is coached by Jim Yount.

A strong dark horse in the tournament is Phillips 66, sparked by Bill Anderson and coached by Virgil Herrick.

Other teams in the tournament are Troop 65, coached by Keith Ekstrom, the Optimist B team, coached by Lee Dow, and the Capital Hustlers, coached by Don Alexander.

The first round schedule on Saturday afternoon is as follows:

Film Actor's AF Promotion Is Surprise

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD — Most of Hollywood — and the rest of the nation — was surprised when President Eisenhower recently nominated James Stewart to be a brigadier general in the Air Force Reserve.
Even his coworkers weren't aware that Stewart had remained active in the Air Force, in which he rose from private to squadron commander in World War II.
That is typical of Stewart. He has refused to capitalize on his military career for publicity purposes. (Oddly, his nomination was announced the same week his new film about a flight pioneer was opening in New York. But Stewart had nothing to do with the timing.)
He will, in fact, make no utterance that isn't in keeping with his quiet dignity. Probably it is this integrity both on the screen and off that has made him one of the most popular film stars in the world—and perhaps the highest paid.
His generalship prompts a fresh look at James Stewart of 1957, a mature, sober citizen who still seems boyish despite his graying, thinning hair. He will be 49 May 20. In usual fashion — halting but sincere — he answered a barrage of questions at his Beverly Hills home:
Q—You've had offers to run for important offices in Pennsylvania and California. Why haven't you entered politics?
A—I don't think I'm equipped.
Q—How do you pick your scripts?
A—Well, I read just about everything that comes along. That's all I have time to read, in fact. Every once in a while you come across something that hits you as worth taking a chance on. I've talked to moviegoers from Chile to Japan and the thing that seems tremendously important to all of them is getting an emotional experience from films. Love, hate, fear, greed, etc. Those are the things we should deal in. I don't think we're in business just to spread the American way of life. If our pictures are good, that's enough to win us friends.
Q—Are there any boring things about your business?
A—Damn few, I'll tell you that.
Q—Are you as rich as people say you are?
A—That depends on how rich they say.
Q—They claim you're very well fixed.
A—(After long pause) Yes, I'm well fixed. I'm a wealthy man.
Q—What gives you the most satisfaction in your business?
A—Going into a role and giving it all the know-how that I have accumulated in 22 or 23 years in this business.

Mayflower II Is Faithful Copy of the Pilgrims' Ship

By ALVIN STEINKOPF
BRIKHAM, England — Stuart A. Upham, a weatherbeaten man who believes in wood and canvas, is the builder of Mayflower II. She is a lady, Upham insists, a strong little ship which will duplicate this spring the voyage across the Atlantic made by the Pilgrim Fathers in 1620.
Mayflower II is in her essentials—looks, size and straining ropes—a copy of the sailing ship in which the Pilgrims ventured to the new world. The new vessel is a gift of the British people to the people of the United States.
Upham and about 35 craftsmen have been working for about a year and a half. Upham sizes up the ship taking final form and says with affection gleaming in his eyes:
"A proper wooden ship is the most beautiful thing man ever created."
And what's the beginning of a good wooden ship?
"The acorn, of course," said Upham. "It's honest oak that we need to withstand the corrosion of salt water, and the battering of the sea."
Upham prowls the Devon and Cornwall countryside, looking for likely trees. They ought to be about 200 years old, and they do not have to be straight and stately. A sturdy, gnarled and twisted oak gladdens his heart, because a wooden ship needs bits and pieces of strange shapes.
"We can bend wood in the steam bath," said Upham. "But then the tiny fibers which constitute the wood are twisted out of their natural shape a little, and we lose something in strength and durability. But if that twist grows naturally the wood comes into my ship in just the form it wants to be, and there's nothing like timber to appreciate good treatment."
Mayflower II is a ship of fine appearance, but not built with beauty a first consideration. It is a faithful copy, and the first Mayflower was a practical merchantman, a 180-ton freighter which hauled wine from the Mediterranean ports before the Pilgrims chartered her.
"Mayflower II is not grand as a schooner, or sleek as a yacht, but a very presentable craft," said Upham. "She's a bark, that's what she is. We put every emphasis we could into making this a rugged ship, and she will stand up to storms."
"Mayflower II is a live ship, daintily balanced and full of spirit. When we launched her last September, she slid down into the water eagerly, and then danced on the waves as if she were a ping pong ball. Then we pulled her back into the dry dock. It's her boudoir, where we are dressing her to go calling overseas."
"But she's been a headache. We've never built a 17th Century ship. We had excellent designs from A. Baker, the American naval architect, but we had to feel our way along, rediscovering many of the old techniques."
Upham, who is 49, will sail to America with his ship. In his youth he sailed some of his company's fishing vessels out of Brixham.
"So I know a few tricks on a sailing ship," he said. "There is this business of fresh water, for instance. We'll sail with what we need, and there will be no distilling. But I have learned that the way to conserve water is to provide only a very small hand pump on the tanks. So our new Pilgrims will have to work hard to get a cup of water, and won't be wasting any."
The word "meander" which means a winding, non-direct course comes from the winding Menderes River in Turkey.

Warsaw Lions Have Benefit Ball Games

Gale proceeds of $76.70 went to the Benton County March of Dimes drive when members of the Warsaw Lions Club played a series of benefit volleyball and basketball games on Monday night, March 4, at the Warsaw Community building. Lions playing the Warsaw girls volleyball team were bested 28-24 by the girls. Lions playing the Warsaw High School "B" basketball team were defeated with a 55-25 score. The Warsaw town team also lost a game with the Warsaw High School "A" team, with the final tally being 83-30.

Van Doren To Continue His Teaching

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK — Before he was tripped by a relatively easy question, Charles Van Doren made some difficult decisions and came up with the right answers on the quiz program Twenty-One.
Now Van Doren has made the most difficult of many decisions—and come up with the right answer. He's turning down the easy money. He will continue to teach at Columbia University and to work for his doctorate in English literature. He is going to write what he wants to write.
Ever since Van Doren, 31, began winning money on the quiz program, he began winning the esteem and literally the affection of television viewers. He became, as they say, the hottest personality on television in this winter season.
Profitable offers inundated him. They have increased since he was defeated Monday evening by Mrs. Vivienne Neering when he failed to remember that Baudouin is the King of Belgium. There are offers to deliver lectures in all parts of the country, offers to make recordings, to endorse an amazing array of commercial products, to make guest appearances on all kinds of TV programs.
Somebody wants him to start his own television quiz program and somebody else wants him to go to Hollywood. There was a $50,000 screen offer. (That was an easy decision; he turned it down on the telephone.) Being a "personality," Van Doren learned, can be a trying experience.
Very wisely he obtained an agent to handle these complex affairs. Now, says his representative at Music Corp. of America, he "will do nothing that is inconsistent with his career." As of this writing he has turned down every offer—except one. He will appear on NBC radio's Conversation, that excellent program which returns to the air March 21 for a regular Thursday evening series.
For one who earns $4,200 a year as a teacher, it is not easy to turn down offers of thousands of dollars. One might say, "But look at all the money he won on Twenty-One. Actually, his take-home winnings after taxes are unofficially estimated at only $38,000 of the $129,000 he won."
The point is that Van Doren is not trying to trade on his name as a popular quiz contestant. He is going ahead, rather, to make his own name as a teacher and writer.
Scarcely anyone remembers who won a quiz contest a year ago. But a writer and teacher like Charles' father, Mark Van Doren, has an honored and lasting place in the life of America.

Follows Family Trend

ATLANTA — A couple who "met under the chinaberry tree in the backyard about six months ago," are married now. The groom, Luther Stephenson, is 74 years old; the bride, Joyce, is 18. Joyce's mother, Mrs. W. A. Brewer, said "it runs in the family. My husband was 59 when I married him and I was 19. We had five children and a wonderful life."

Lamine 4-H Discuss Having Wiener Roast

Lamine 4-H Club met March 7 and discussed having an egg and wiener roast in April. Jeanette Rugen gave a talk on the garden. Fourteen members, four leaders and three guests were present. The next meeting will be April 12.

Visits to Clubs

During the past week I have visited the Pleasant Homemakers Extension Club. This group is interested in the 4-H groups in their area. They sponsor the Busy Beavers 4-H Club and the Pleasant Green 4-H Club. To give the adult leaders additional help this Club is providing subscriptions to the National 4-H Club magazine for the leaders in both 4-H Clubs. This is a worthwhile project and a good idea for other Extension Clubs. If interested, contact the Extension office.

Foods Leaders Training

Food buying was the subject for the Extension Clubs foods leaders training meeting. Twenty-seven clubs were represented at this meeting. Miss Josephine Flory, Extension Nutritionist presented the lesson. Subjects discussed were reading labels, importance of the consumer being informed, comparison of grocery orders as to both price and nutritional value, the value of both time and money.

The new planning and planting garden calendar and the new Home Canning Guide were discussed. These are available at the Extension office.

Luck of the Irish

Irish or not — if you like potatoes, you're certainly in luck this week. "Irish" potatoes are extremely low priced. The Scotch will be interested, too, because you can put potatoes on the table for as little as a penny a serving.

Dieters take note: A medium sized potato contains only about 100 calories. It's the butter, cheese, dressings, and other rich seasonings that boost the calories.

Underneath their skins is more than starch. There's Vitamin C, some of the B Vitamins, Iron, and other valuable nutrients. To retain the most, cook in their jackets. Rarely do we see red potatoes labeled as to their variety, but there are many different varieties on the market, each with its own set of cooking qualities. Unless you're a potato expert, it's pretty hard to distinguish just by looking at the potato — the difference shows up in the cooking. A rule of thumb is to cook a small quantity of a certain variety. If the potatoes fall apart when you boil them, try baking what is left in that package. They should be mealy — the best quality for baking. If the potatoes are firm after baking, they probably will hold their shape best for scalloping, frying, creaming, or making salads.

Each pound of potatoes yields three servings regardless of size. For health's sake serve potatoes at least once a day — good eating at a low cost.

Savings Bond Sales Are $69,563 in Month

J. J. McGrath, Savings Bonds chairman for Pettis County, today released the February U.S. Savings Bonds sales figures of $69,563 for the county, bringing the total sales to date to $172,193, or 18 per cent of the goal set for 1957.

R. E. L. Hill, Missouri Savings Bonds state chairman, also released the state Savings Bonds sales figures of $10,452,640 for February and of $24,585,178 to date this year, or 16.2 per cent of the 1957 quota.

US Reserve Board Stays Unconvinced

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — The relaxed business boom may be allaying fears of still further inflation of prices in some quarters. But the Federal Reserve Board will have none of it — yet.

The money managers see new pressures that could be building up — increased government spending for one.

While noting the growing opinion that it actually may be deflation that lies ahead, the board cites the official statistics which show that business in general is holding at a high level even if the feverish upward climb has given way to a lull which may or may not be temporary.

It's going to take more of a downturn in industrial production and in factory employment apparently to convince the board that inflation has changed to deflation.

Board Chairman William McChesney Martin Jr. advises letting a free market subject to the laws of supply and demand take care of the present industrial and financial situation rather than pumping up a new business boom with easier credit.

Employment in general continues high. But the Commerce and Labor departments, making their monthly sampling in mid-February, estimated that factory employment was off by 22,000 from January. They noted layoffs in the home building materials, industries, in radio, TV and auto factories.

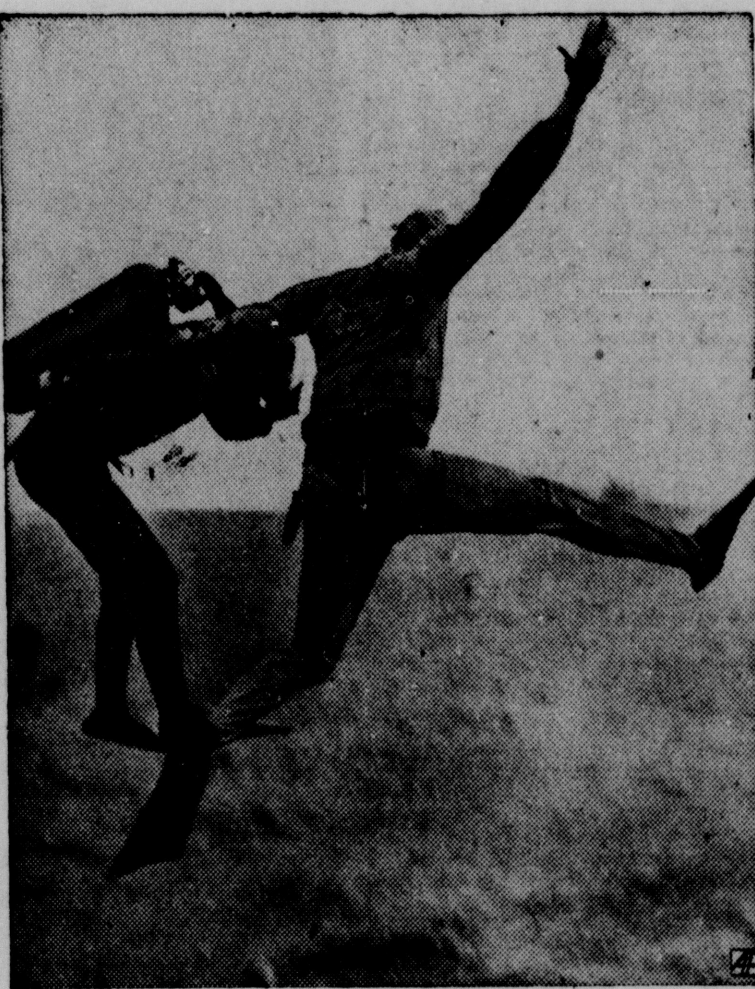

But the 17 million who were working in factories were averaging $82.41 a week, a record for February, and the work week was about unchanged at slightly over 40 hours.

It is these rising payroll totals that management has been using to explain part of the reason for hiking prices to the consumer.

Prices of industrial materials — another big cost item for manufacturers — have been fluctuating of late. The price of some metals has slipped from earlier peaks although the price of end products made from metals has mostly continued to rise.

Those who think that the stresses in the business world will shortly take care of inflation without government interference cite this softening in materials prices as one reason.

Another is that money isn't quite as tight as it was. This doesn't mean that credits easy now nor that interest rates are lower. But bankers note that the demand of businessmen for loans to build up inventories isn't feverish now as it was this time last

Actor in Hospital With Lung Infection

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Actor Ronald Colman has been in St. John's Hospital for two weeks with a lung infection but he may be able to leave for his ranch near Santa Barbara, Calif., early next week.

His wife said he became ill with what appeared to be a heavy cold shortly after Christmas. His ailment has been diagnosed as pneumonia, an inflammation of the lung apparently stemming from an attack of pneumonia he suffered 18 months ago.

Court Receives $600 Check for $6 in Fines

DALLAS (AP) — Corporation Court officials were a little startled to find a cashier's check for $600 in the mail yesterday.

The traffic tickets attached totaled only $6.

Chief Clerk Hugh Jones, who wouldn't give the violator's name, said he "evidently paid his $6 for a cashier's check and the bank failed to catch the mistake."

Jones said an officer would return the check to the bank. "No doubt they will be willing to give us a $6 check instead."

Nor is the demand for funds to expand production — although it is still high.

Motorists Leave Space Vacant After Arguing With Their Autos

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Patrolman Bob Beck, undecided who won yesterday's bang-up battle of the parking space, tells this story:

Milton Z. Bobier, 30, a salesman from Phoenix, drove up just as a motorist pulled out of the space. Along came Martha Jean Wilson, 24, a tourist from Tampa, Fla., also eying the space.

Bobier leaped from his car, waved his fist at Miss Wilson and warned her to move by the count of three. She stood firm.

The salesman gunned his engine and rammed the front of Miss Wilson's car with the rear of his own. Damage to Bobier's car: $250. To Miss Wilson's: $45.

Temper, temper, chided Beck, advising Miss Wilson to see the county attorney about filing charges. But both drove off in a huff — leaving the space vacant.

Omits Major Role

ONEONTA, N. Y. (AP) — At his own request, the obituary of Harmon Chaplain, 74, omitted a major activity he had performed annually in this community.

He didn't want the children who had met him in his year-end role to be disillusioned, said the white-haired, white-bearded Chaplain shortly before he died a few days ago.

Reduces Prison Term For Drill Instructor At Marine Station

PARRIS ISLAND, S. C. (AP) — A Marine drill instructor, convicted by court-martial last week of illegally touching recruits under his command here, yesterday got two-months lopped off his prison sentence.

A special court-martial sentenced Cpl. William R. Walsh, of Lyndhurst, N. J., to three months in prison, reduction in rank to private, and a fine of $40 a month for three months.

Lt. Col. Oscar F. Peatross, Raleigh, N. C., convening authority of Walsh's court-martial ordered reduction of the prison sentence to 30 days, the Marine Corps public information office here said. Other provisions of the sentence remained effective.

The sentence could be further reduced or thrown out altogether by Maj. Gen. Homer L. Litzenberg, base commander, who has not completed his review of the court-martial.

The U. S. Navy's new seaplane tanker can refuel four fighter planes at the same time.

Man Owes Government For Moving Garage

DENVER (AP) — Roy Blake had his garage moved from one side of the backyard to another in suburban Wheat Ridge.

Now the government says he owes $4.35. That's for federal excise taxes on transportation of property by rail, motor vehicle, water or air "from one point in the United States to another."

Seems Blake had his garage jacked up on wheels and pulled across the yard by truck.

Buffet Supper Tops St. Pat's Day

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor
Buffet supper time on St. Patrick's Day! What's on the menu? Start with a hearty potato chowder, in honor of Erin, and go on to baked ham and a big beautiful molded salad—green, of course—with the fresh, sweet-tart taste of grapefruit in it.

We're giving you two recipes for the salad; one uses unflavored gelatin, the other lime-flavored gelatin. Our own taste would choose the first—but suit yourself.

GRAPEFRUIT SALAD MOLD, NUMBER ONE

Ingredients: 1 package (3 ounces) cream cheese, 2 envelopes unflavored gelatin, ¼ cup sugar, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¾ cups canned unsweetened grapefruit juice, 3 cups drained fresh grapefruit sections, ¼ cup diced pimiento, salad greens.

Method: Form cream cheese into 8 small balls; chill. Mix together the gelatin, sugar and salt in a saucepan. Add 1 cup of the grapefruit juice. Place over moderate heat, stirring occasionally, until gelatin is thoroughly dissolved. Remove from heat; add remaining 2½ cups grapefruit juice. Stir in enough green food coloring to tint. Chill. Arrange a few of the grapefruit sections, cream-cheese balls and pieces of pimiento in a 5-cup ring mold to make an attractive design. Spoon in a little of the chilled gelatin and chill until almost firm. Chill remaining gelatin until the consistency of unbeaten egg white. Fold in ¼ cups grapefruit sections and remaining pimiento. Spoon into mold; chill until firm. Unmold and fill center with salad greens, remaining grapefruit sections and cream-cheese balls. Makes 8 servings.

Note: For a delicious variation, mold a small pecan or walnut half in each cream-cheese ball. Serve this salad the same day it is made; it may stiffen too much if held overnight.

GRAPEFRUIT SALAD MOLD, NUMBER TWO

Ingredients: 1 package (3 ounces) cream cheese, ¾ cups

Our Pigeon Nuisance

Most of Sedalia's pigeons made it thru the more or less mild winter. They are becoming gay in this spring-like weather, and their fluttering and cooing is more pronounced around customary haunts in the residential and business districts.

Sedalia's pigeon nuisance has been a distressing one. But Sedalia is not the only place bothered with them. Boonville has had the matter up before city council already this year. Maybe we can borrow an idea from them.

Recently a delegation from the Boonville Presbyterian Church and several private home owners appeared before the council calling attention to the pigeon problem at the high school, churches and homes there. One spokesman stated that the U. S. Department of Interior, Division of Wildlife Service, had recommended the trapping and disposal of birds.

The Missouri Training School for Boys offered to build the traps if the city would furnish the material, and so it was ordered by Boonville city council with instructions the dog catcher be put in charge of placing, baiting and servicing the traps which will cost $10 to $12 each. Boonville estimated a maximum of ten traps would be needed. That wouldn't be enough for Sedalia considering the pigeon population here. The dog catcher would also be charged with disposal of the birds.

A point raised by the Boonville street commissioner was who would be responsible for any damage done to roofs while traps are placed by the street department which got that assignment. Boonville council moved that any person wanting pigeon traps on his premises must give the city a written release on any damages to roof or other property.

This pigeon nuisance in Sedalia should be given as much attention as in Boonville. Maybe more mothers and fathers would become interested if they read an item in Dr. Edwin P. Jordan's column which had this to say:

"Q. Pigeons are constantly roosting on the window ledge outside my child's room. The youngster has a rash and I wonder if the pigeons could be responsible?"

"A. There is a fowl or pigeon mite which may cause a skin rash. However, one must also consider other possible causes of this child's skin trouble. Pigeons also carry some viral diseases, at least one of which, the virus of psittacosis or parrot fever, can be acquired by human beings."

Of course, if Sedalia wants to put up with the pigeon menace, city council will likely take no interest in the matter, either.

Drinking Problem On Capitol Hill

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Two plush cocktail parties in the Senate Office Building have raised the question of drinking in government buildings—a question which has been debated pro and con ever since Daniel Webster used to appear inebriated on the Senate floor.

The question happens to be a bipartisan one, since both President Eisenhower and Adlai Stevenson attended the cocktail parties in question—one for ex-Chairman Len Hall, Republican, last week; the other for new Sen. Joseph Clark, Democrat of Philadelphia earlier.

There was a time when the Methodist Board of Temperance and Social Service, of which the late Bishop James Cannon was the crusading chairman, kept an eagle eye on Capitol Hill drinking. As a partial result, the Senate does not permit even beer to be served in its dining room. The House does permit beer, but nothing stronger.

In other government buildings there are regulations against the serving of liquor, though around Christmastime officials diligently look the other way.

But on Capitol Hill, which has its own police, the Solons have made their own rules. They date back to 1837 when Congress voted to banish the official bar from the halls of Congress, chiefly because Daniel Webster and Henry Clay spent most of their time there.

Plus GOP Bar

About the time the official bar was banished from the Capitol the ring of saloons that surrounded the Capitol also was dried up, including Pendleton's famous House of Fortune. In those days there was one saloon to every 90 people in the city. But all bars were abolished from around the Senate and House and remained banished.

The first real dent in this taboo on bars near the Capitol building came immediately after Eisenhower was elected. Some of the most distinguished leaders of the Republican party set up the Capitol Hill Club at that time, just across the street from the House of Representatives where a thirsty Solon could slip across and get a quick snifter.

The bar was located in the former home of ex-Congressman Charley Dewey of Chicago, and such GOP leaders as John Foster Dulles, Clare Booth Luce, ex-Secretary of War Pat Hurley, and Sen. Frank Carlson from the once very dry state of Kansas, each kicked in $500 to get the club going.

The GOP bar aroused a furor among Washington clergymen partly because it was the first bar near the Capitol since 1837, partly because the GOPers pulled wires to get their place licensed. A license for a package store had just been vetoed right next door to the GOP club, despite which Republican leaders overruled all precedent and wangled an "on-the-premises" drinking license. They even got the D.C. law waived regarding the fingerprinting of the license owners. The distinguished Repub-

Guest Editorial—

MEMPHIS COMMERCIAL APPEAL: Judicial Experience. After a long period of indifference to judicial experience of the men who become the most powerful judges in the United States, a precedence for naming men with judicial experience is being established.

Three appointments is hardly enough to fully establish the requirement. But it is a strong trend, since it represents one third of the court's membership.

President Eisenhower's most recent nominee, Judge Charles Evans Whittaker of Kansas City, has been both a Federal District judge and a Federal Circuit Court of Appeals judge. While he has worn the robes less than three years, he has had a most educational experience on both the lower benches of the Federal judiciary.

Justice William J. Brennan, still to be confirmed by the Senate, came up from the supreme court of New Jersey. Justice John Harlan was a member of a Circuit Court of Appeals.

Each of these three appointments strengthens the hope of promotion among Federal judges. Each strengthens the judicial experience of the highest court in the land.

nians who applied for the license didn't want to be fingerprinted, so the law was ignored.

Now, as a result of the two open super-duper cocktail parties, one Democratic and one Republican, held in the Senate office building, Washington dries and clergy are up in arms. You're sure to hear a lot more demand that the Capitol go back to the laws of 1837.

Fickle Dick

Vice-President Nixon's ballyhoo over the new state on the African gold coast and his tour of Africa are having repercussions among our so-called good neighbors. Some of them now call themselves "neglected neighbors."

When Latin Americans read about the big hurrah given the new state of Ghana, they can't help wondering what this new-found American love for Africa is going to do to the tropical products which Latin America has been shipping the United States, but which are now being increasingly shelved by the near-slave labor of Africa.

Take cocoa and chocolate. This is the chief, almost the sole export of Ecuador. It's also a big export of Brazil. Shortly before World War I, however, the British started growing cocoa in the African gold coast, now Ghana, until today Ghana is the world's chief cocoa producer. This was accomplished not because the cocoa bean of Africa was any better—actually it was imported from Ecuador—but because of cheap African labor plus efficient British government-dominated cartels.

Cheap Negro labor has made Africa an easier target for communism today, which is one reason Nixon is frantically wooing the Africans to stay out of the Soviet bloc.

Meanwhile, Latin America went through its social revolution, enjoys higher wages, and is thumbing its nose at the Soviet bloc. Sixteen Latin American countries have severed relations with Moscow. They don't even speak. So we don't have to woo them to keep out of the Soviet bloc. Nevertheless, they resent our fickleness. They recall that Nixon also came to Brazil over a year ago and made a big speech about American solidarity. And they worry that if American imports shift more to cheap-labor Africa, Latin American labor will drift more toward communism. For it's almost axiomatic that heavy cocoa sales in Ghana mean revolution in Ecuador.

NOTE—Latin America produces almost the same tropical products as Africa—cotton, coffee, coca, bananas—plus tobacco, which competes with Kentucky, North Carolina, and the American tobacco states.

The joint chiefs of staff have warned Ike to expect a Chinese Communist assault on Quemoy or Matsu next month. Secret photos show a steady buildup of the Red military. . . . Secretary of State Dulles is so unpopular in Europe and Asia that the Russians are using him as their main propaganda weapon. . . . University students in East Germany are so restive that the Communists have formed armed "alert squads" to patrol and police the universities. . . . Japan's new Premier Nobusuke Kishi has sounded out the American embassy about visiting Washington this summer.

Bob Feller, Cleveland Indians pitcher, holds the record for most strikeouts in one baseball game, a total of 18.

Nearly 60 per cent, or more than a billion acres, of all land in the United States is used for pasture or hay.

The baseball diamond was created in 1845 by Alexander J. Cartwright, an organizer of the first baseball club, the New York Knickerbockers.

New Budget Stirs Confusion in Congress

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—No budget in recent years has caused as much confusion as the one President Eisenhower handed Congress 57 days ago. He asked for almost 72 billion dollars, a record for peacetime.

What follows is a quick rundown on the confusion that spread after Eisenhower sent his budget to Congress Jan. 16:

Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey at a Jan. 16 news conference indicated this was the tightest budget the administration could offer. He said:

"I don't think there is anything in sight at the moment that can be done better than is now proposed in this budget but I think we ought to improve it as time goes on."

Almost immediately he made a second statement which seemed, and still seems, contradictory: "I think there are a lot of places in this budget that can be cut."

This immediately raised two questions:

1. If this was such a tight budget, as he said, how could it be cut?
2. But, if he thinks it can be

Looking Backward...

By Mrs. Muriel Lawrence

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hicks and son, John, Sydney, Australia, former Sedalians, were to sail from that country March 29 for the States and were to visit relatives here. Mr. Hicks was managing director for the Paramount Film Co. in Australia.

Miss Bessie Kanenbley, who had been making her home with Mrs. J. J. Keever, 1009 East Fifth, left for St. Louis where she accepted a position.

Armed with state search warrants Sheriff T. O. Herrick led three police officers in raids at two homes, arrested two men and seized a quantity of alleged home brew and whiskey.

James Maturo, Kansas City, expert cueist, was in the city to play a two days match with Johnny Layton at pocket billiards.

Dr. George F. Townsend, veterinarian, returned from Smith Center, Kan., where he attended the funeral of a relative.

cut, why didn't the administration do it?

Several times since Jan. 16 Humphrey has said cuts could be made but never—although asked by newsmen and Congress—has he said where.

It's extraordinary for a Cabinet officer to say a President's budget can be cut the moment it reaches Congress, and Eisenhower was asked about it at his news conference Jan. 23.

He said there was no difference of opinion between him and Humphrey but he added that, if members of Congress can make cuts, "it is their duty to do so."

This added nothing to anyone's understanding, since everybody knows Congress has the duty to cut the budget, if it can. It was about as informative as saying a policeman can arrest people.

Either because of the size of the budget or because Humphrey stimulated them into hoping cuts can be made, businessmen and others have been flooding Congress with demands for reductions.

The Mature Parent—

Why Children of Working Mothers Resist Housework

Mrs. T. is the working mother of three children, the oldest of whom is Emmy, 14. As office manager of a law firm, she makes enough money to pay another woman to clean her house, do her shopping, give her children lunch and prepare dinner for cooking.

When she gets home, she puts dinner on the stove and then serves it. After it's eaten, she says to her family, "Whew—I'm tired to night!"—and retires to the living room, leaving the dishes to Emmy.

They get left a long time before Emmy gets around to them. When she finally does, it's usually after her mother has said, "I'd be ashamed if I were you! What do you want me to do after working all day—come home and wash the dishes as well as cook your dinner?"

This question arouses still more resistance in Emmy. I can quite understand why. She has been given no say whatever in her mother's decision to exhaust herself in the service of lawyers instead of her family.

Her feeling is, "Why should I have to do the dishes alone every night because Mommy prefers a job to housework? Other girls' mothers help with the dishes. Why do I have to be different from other girls because Mommy likes being different from other mothers?"

If you are a working mother, you will be intelligent to recognize the fact that Emmy has a point.

The offspring of working mothers tend to be more ordinarily resistant to doing home chores. Though their mothers may have the most reasonable - sounding motives for choosing work outside the home over work inside it, they have nevertheless made their choice and declared their preference.

They have devaluated home chores in comparison with money-making. Children sense that this devaluation has taken place—and with its example before them day in day out, naturally begin to resist home chores, too.

If you're a working mother, you're behaving like an ostrich if you do not register this as natural—and take steps to remedy it. The first step is, of course, to-tions. Eisenhower is aware of this.

The demands are coming from Congress too, and particularly from Eisenhower's own Republicans. At his March 7 news conference, Eisenhower showed signs of backing away, suggesting some of the programs he asked money for might be slowed down.

Meanwhile, Percival Brundage, the budget director and therefore the one man who should know more than anyone else about what went into the budget, made a statement.

He said he sees little hope for substantial cuts in spending for at least two years.

Things got so whacky that the Democrats in the House—no doubt for political reasons—pulled a switch by asking Eisenhower to tell them where cuts could be made, thus trying to shift responsibility from Congress back to the administration.

At his news conference yesterday Eisenhower said he had never asked Congress to cut the budget. But he repeated: If Congress could cut, it should cut.

Conservation Agents

Urge Fire Caution During Warm Weather

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—Though most Missourians enjoy this sort of mild spring weather it always worried the Conservation Commission's forestry division.

State Forester George White said today's humidity level is abnormally low, 18 per cent, and the March winds are blowing with the temperature expected to climb to 75 through much of the state.

"That's fire weather," White said in urging Missourians to be careful, do no grass burning and put out all unnecessary fires.

The forestry division reported that a purposely set fire in Benton County burned over between 500 and 600 acres of land Sunday before it could be controlled.

Bird Causes Ring

At Man's Window

SOUTH PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Irrked by a persistent ringing noise near his bedroom window, Louis S. Kurze complained to the telephone company. A lineman came out, couldn't find the source of the trouble, but said he was certain it wasn't in the telephone equipment.

The ringing continued. Kurze called the Southern California Edison Co., which supplies his light and power, and for three days a trouble-shooter tried to find the source of the noise. Finally he located it. Inside a metal transformer box a woodpecker was hammering away.

Chattering and screeching, the woodpecker flew away as the lineman tapped the box.

A New Senator Joe

McCarthy Is Defender Of Liberties In Labor Probe

By JOSEPH A. DEAR
Of Our Washington Bureau
WASHINGTON—Senator Joe McCarthy has undergone a remarkable transformation.

As chairman of the Senate's permanent investigating subcommittee the Wisconsin Republican was generally considered a demagogue prosecutor who assumed the guilt of all those summoned before him. But the Senator Joe on the special committee investigating labor racketeering is another man. He is the defender of civil liberties. He seeks to pinpoint charges, and thus prevent wholesale smearing of innocents on the sidelines.

The current phase of the special committee's hearings relate to the situation in Portland, Oregon. According to witness James Elkins, admittedly a racketeer, officials of the powerful Teamsters Union tried to cut in on the Portland operation. To employ one of Senator Joe's favorite terms, the unfolding "pattern" in the hearings is suggestive.

Blundly put, Senator Joe is emerging as the not so unwitting handmaiden of the Teamsters. He has shown his hand several times since the hearings began. But the most revealing slip was when Senator Joe said Elkins, the committee's star performer, was anti-Teamster because its officials had thwarted his plan to dominate all rackets in the West with the aid of one "Greenspun."

Presumably this was a reference to Hank Greenspun, a vigorous and outspoken publisher in Las Vegas, Nevada. A while back, Senator Joe said some nasty things about Greenspun in a speech. Greenspun thereupon printed some nasty things about Senator Joe. And there that matter stands.

The Committee for Return of Confiscated German and Japanese Property last week enlisted the support of Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, but then lost her.

Friends told Mrs. FDR the committee was lobbying for the return of I. G. Farben to its former owners. This was the big pre-war German chemical combine. Its assets here were seized during World War II.

Mrs. Roosevelt wired: "... Am not at all interested in seeing work done for the big companies many of whom, I feel, did a great deal to bring on the war. ..."

The Senators like to see their names in print.

Example: When the special committee to investigate labor racketeering resumed hearings its chairman, Senator John McClellan (D-Ark.), spent the first hour leafing through an advance issue of Life magazine which carried a story on the show.

To many Americans, the very essence of President Eisenhower's appeal derives from his military background, which apparently implies a non-partisan, non-political attitude toward national affairs. It will come as a surprise to many, therefore, to learn that one of Ike's most distinguished colleagues of the last war criticized his interests in politics.

The critic is Sir Alanbrooke, who was Chief of the Imperial General Staff. Alanbrooke had this to say about Ike's direction of the North African invasion: "Eisenhower seemed unable to grasp the urgency of pushing on to Tunis. . . . (He) was far too immersed in the political aspect of the situation. . . . Tactics, strategy, and command, Alanbrooke writes, were never Ike's strong points. The Britisher considered General George Marshall a poor strategist too. The greatest General of the last war, according to Alanbrooke, was Douglas MacArthur.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D.

People seem to glory in proving other people wrong. They are quick to pick up errors in pronunciation, in grammar, and in minutia of fact. Commentators or folk appearing in the public eye are picked up quickly for any error in their speech.

The critics of Jesus tried to trick Him into error in logic, lack of appreciation for legal details, disloyalty to political powers and inconsistency in religious customs. When they were unable to convict Him on a technicality, they trumped up charges on which to sentence Him to death.

We could all do well to read the words of Christ, and learn how to rise above the human desire to find mistakes. Criticism can tear down our morale if we become too much concerned with trivia.

As Jesus pointed out during His last days on earth, we must be concerned about love and faith and salvation instead of the letter of the law.

RECENTLY A WOMAN saw an item in the paper about two cars, one with a white top and one with a black top, that had been standing out in the sun and the temperature in the car with the white was so much cooler than the one with the black top. The men couldn't figure out why.

"I could tell them," said the woman. "Dark colors absorb heat and hold it, white colors radiate heat. That is why a thin dark dress is hotter in the summer than a light dress."

The woman went on to tell of an early experience in her life. There was a restaurant in her family, she said, and it was closed on Sundays because no one seemed to patronize it in that neighborhood on that day. There was a growing plant in the window and she thought she would make the window more attractive so she put a white oil cloth down and put the plant on it. When she returned the plant had wilted and burned so that it died.

IT WAS HIS first year in school and he liked the girls pretty well. "Do you have a girl?" someone asked him.

"I like three of them," he admitted, and then he added, "Ann wants me to marry her when we grow up."

"Oh," said the grownup, "and what did you tell her?"

"I told her, said the little boy, "that all depends."

Shamrock Sundae Is Irish Delight

DESSERT TABLE can boast shamrocks made with ice cream and a cookie cutter.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Is it a party you're planning for St. Patrick's Day? Then why not serve that good old standby, ice cream and cookies?

Use a shamrock cookie cutter to shape the ice cream appropriately, then make up a pineapple sauce with mint-flavored green maraschino cherries. Here's the recipe:

SHAMROCK SUNDAES
Ingredients: 1 quart vanilla ice cream, 1 can (1 pound and 4 ounces) crushed pineapple, 1 tablespoon cornstarch, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1-3 cup (about 15) chopped mint-flavored green maraschino cherries, ¼ cup broken walnut meats (if desired).

Method: Slice ice cream about 1½ inches thick. Cut ice cream slices with 3-inch shamrock cookie cutter. Place on waxed paper. Freeze until firm. Drain pineapple and reserve syrup. Stir cornstarch and salt together in a medium-sized saucepan; gradually add pineapple syrup, stirring until smooth after each addition. Cook and stir constantly over low heat until thickened and clear. Add walnuts to sauce before serving. Serve sauce over ice-cream shamrocks. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

If you haven't a shamrock cookie
